1959 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

Unbeaten and untied, the 1959 Orange capped an 11-0 season with a 23-14 victory against Texas in the Cotton Bowl. Syracuse dominated its foes both offensively and defensively under the direction of consensus National Coach of the Year Ben Schwartzwalder. The defense allowed a mind-boggling 193 yards rushing in 10 regular-season games. Running back Ernie Davis led an Orange offense that averaged 451 yards per game. Guard Roger Davis, who was selected seventh overall by the Chicago Bears in the 1960 NFL Draft, end Fred Mautino, halfback Gerhard Schwedes and tackle Bob Yates earned All-America honors.

1961 HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER:
ERNIE DAVIS

In 1961, the Civil Rights Act was three years from becoming a reality. It would be four years until the voting rights of all Americans were protected by federal law. But, an unassuming sports hero was about to play an important, yet unintentional, role in the burgeoning civil rights movement. On Dec. 6, 1961, Syracuse University running back Ernest R. Davis was awarded the Heisman Trophy. It was the first time an African-American was honored as college football's best player, even though they had participated in the game since the late 1800s.

As a sophomore, Davis rushed for a team-high 686 yards and scored 10 touchdowns to power Ben Schwartzwalder's 1959 Orange to a 10-0 regular-season record, the nation's No. 1 ranking, and a Cotton Bowl showdown with Texas. With the collective eyes of the college football world focused on Dallas, Davis captured MVP honors, scoring two touchdowns – one on an 87-yard halfback option pass from captain Gerhard Schwedes – and setting up a third to spark a 23-14 Orange triumph.

In 1960, Davis led the squad in rushing again with 877 yards and scored 10 more touchdowns to earn All-America accolades. Davis paced Syracuse on the ground for a third time in 1961, rushing for 823 yards and scoring 15 touchdowns. In the Liberty Bowl, he ran for 140 yards on 30 carries and scored Syracuse's first touchdown, as the Orange rallied from a 14-0 halftime deficit to nip Miami (Fla.), 15-14.

A unanimous selection for his second first-team All-America honor, Davis was then rewarded with the 1961 Heisman Trophy. President John F. Kennedy sent the following telegram to Davis in 1963 after a celebration of Davis' achievements in Elmira, New York:

"Seldom has an athlete been more deserving of such a tribute. Your high standards of performance on the field and off the field reflect the finest qualities of competition, sportsmanship and citizenship. The nation has bestowed upon you its highest awards for your athletic achievements. It's a privilege for me to address you tonight as an outstanding American, and as a worthy example of our youth. I salute you."

Hoping to team the talented Davis with his Syracuse backfield predecessor and NFL rushing king Jim Brown, Cleveland Browns owner Art Modell traded for Davis after Washington selected him with the first overall pick in the annual draft. But before the former Orange stars could suit up together, Davis contracted leukemia and died on May 18, 1963. He was 23 years old.

In the fall of 1979, Davis, who had taken the greatness of Syracuse's No. 44 from Jim Brown and passed it on to Floyd Little, was posthumously inducted into the National Football Foundation's College Hall of Fame. In 2008, "The Express," a motion picture about Davis' life, premiered in downtown Syracuse. Syracuse University has honored Davis in many ways, including the retirement of his No. 44 jersey, erecting a statue of him on the University Quad, building Ernie Davis Hall and celebrating the 50th anniversary of his historic Heisman victory with an event at the New York Historical Society Museum in 2011.

BEST OF THE BEST

51 Orange have been named to at least one major All-America first team a total of 62 times. Center J.A. (Joe) Alexander and halfback Floyd Little were three-time, first-team honorees.

CONSENSUS ALL-AMERICANS

CONSECUTIVE SEASONS FROM 1975 TO 1999 WITH AT LEAST ONE ALL-AMERICAN

During Syracuse's 130-year football history, more than 100 Orange players have been named All-Americans. Bill Horr became the program's first in 1907 when the legendary Walter Camp selected Horr to his "Second Eleven." Running back Sean Tucker is the Orange's most recent honoree, earning All-America accolades by four of the five consensus teams and first team honors from the FWAA. The most recent unanimous All-American was Andre Szmyt in 2018, who would go on to win the Lou Groza Award as the nation's best kicker.

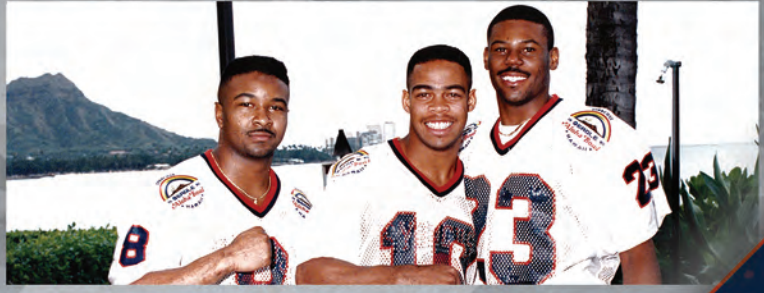
BOWL TRADITION

Syracuse is 16-9-1 in its 26 bowl appearances and has won six of its last seven postseason games, including the 2018 Camping World Bowl. From 1989-96, the Orange won seven consecutive bowl games, the seventh-longest streak in the history of college football. Syracuse has played in 17 different bowl games. The program's .635 winning percentage ranks fifth all-time among schools with at least 15 bowl appearances.

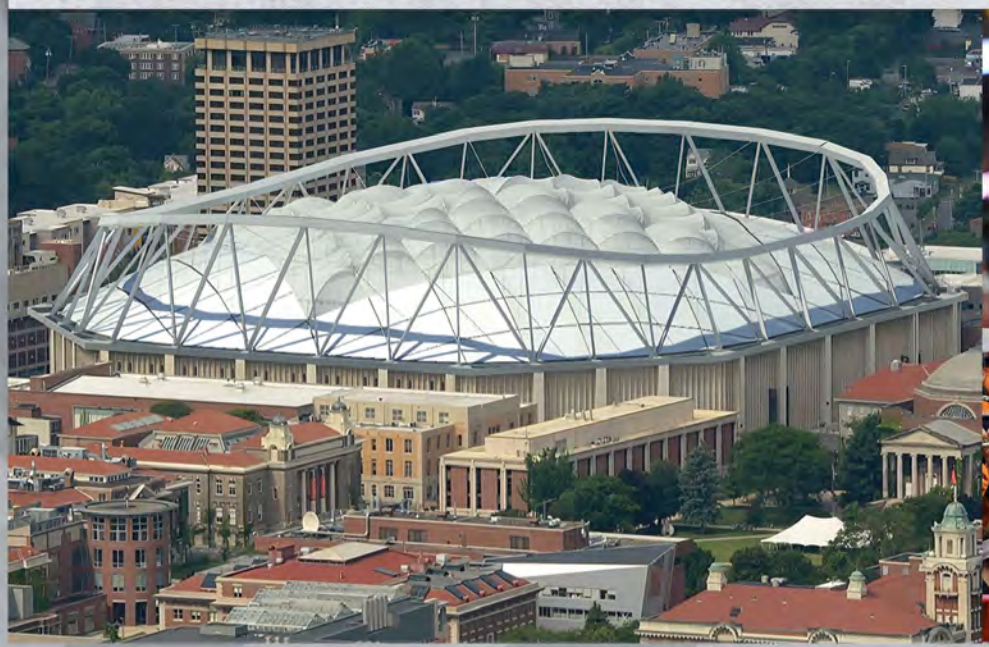
NEW YEAR'S SIX

During its illustrious history, Syracuse has earned invitations to all six games that make up the College Football Playoff – the Rose, Sugar, Orange, Fiesta, Peach and Cotton Bowls.



THE LOUD HOUSE

The JMA Wireless Dome is one of the most unique venues in all of sports, hosting the Orange's football, basketball and lacrosse programs. In 2020, the University announced a $118 million investment in the facility to create a new stadium experience. The first phase of renovations completed in 2021, include a new fixed roof, center-hung scoreboard, improved lighting and sound. In June of 2022, Syracuse-based JMA Wireless entered a 10-year naming rights agreement for the building. JMA Wireless will also support the Dome's digital infrastructure transformation by establishing the most advanced connectivity offerings for fans and other users while at the facility.



FIRST-CLASS FACILITIES

The Ensley Athletic Center and Iocolano-Petty Football Complex stand as symbols of Syracuse University's commitment to providing an exceptional student-athlete experience. Named in honor of three-sport letterwinner Cliff Ensley, the 87,000-square foot Ensley Athletic Center offers a full-sized, indoor, FieldTurf practice field identical to the JMA Wireless Dome. The Iocolano-Petty Football Complex embodies the long and storied tradition of Syracuse football. It features a Dome theater, state-of-the-art player lounge, athletic training and player recovery facilities, a locker room, dining facility, and multiple displays honoring the program's all-time greats.

Student-Athlete Academic Development

The Stevenson Educational Center, located in Manley Field House, is home to the Syracuse Student-Athlete Academic Development staff. The center features a computer lab, tutor rooms, career development suite and meeting rooms for both day and evening study-table sessions.

The educational center team is involved in additional activities designed to enhance academic performance. Orientation programs for incoming student-athletes are held at the beginning of the first semester to aid in the transition from high school to college. Career-planning programs assist those who are undecided on their major course of study. As student-athletes approach the end of their college careers, programs coordinated by the academic development staff help them enter the work force or explore opportunities for graduate school.

One of those programs is the "S Project," which is designed to provide student-athletes with proactive and continuing education. Through the program, student-athletes develop the skills necessary to excel in the classroom, maximize their athletic ability and prepare for post-collegiate success. The curriculum is centered on four areas – career readiness, financial education, healthy relationships, and wellness and personal development.

Staff members focus on the enhancement of academic performance through the development of study and communication skills, goal-setting, stress and time management, and individual tutoring and mentoring. Academic performance is monitored to ensure NCAA, Atlantic Coast Conference and Syracuse University eligibility rules are met and that progress is being made toward graduation.

SERVING THE COMMUNITY

Giving back to the community is integral to the development of the overall student-athlete. Through the 'Cuse Cares program, Syracuse coaches and student-athletes log thousands of community service hours each year. The Orange football team has been a leader in that regard, earning multiple awards for service. In 2018, linebacker Kielan Whitner was named to the prestigious Allstate AFCA Good Works Team for his commitment to volunteerism. Last season, Syracuse Uplifting Athletes chapter president Sam Heckel was selected to the inaugural Rare Disease Champion Team for his significant and lasting impact on the rare disease community. Football also won the 2016-17 'Cuse Cares Award for community engagement, which included participation in Syracuse's annual St. Baldrick's Day benefitting childhood cancer research, Beads of Courage, Building Men and additional volunteer programs.

ACC TOP SIX FOR SERVICE

Presented annually to six student-athletes at each member institution, the ACC Top Six for Service Award recognizes those who demonstrate outstanding dedication to community service and outreach programs.

Since joining the conference in 2013-14, the Orange football team has had eight individuals combine for 10 ACC Top Six for Service honors, with former quarterback Zack Mahoney and former offensive lineman Sam Heckel earning the award twice in their careers. Aaron Bolinsky and Joey Kelly are the two latest players to earn the honor. Bolinsky is the current president of the Syracuse Chapter of "Uplifting Athletes," which puts on the annual Lift for Life event to raise money for rare diseases.

Carrier

THE STORIED HISTORY OF CARRIER & THE DOME

On behalf of our alumni, students, faculty, staff and fans in Central New York and all over the world, Syracuse University would like to express our deep gratitude to Carrier for its many years of support. Without Carrier's historic gift to the University in 1979 — the first naming agreement for a major stadium in college sports, and one of the first in all of sports — completion of the Carrier Dome would not have been possible.

Carrier's generous support was instrumental in creating an iconic sports and event facility that became known around the country. As the site of many famous competitions, the Carrier Dome has brought unforgettable sporting experiences to the University and its fans and has broken NCAA attendance records 16 times. The Dome's versatility as a venue for football, basketball, lacrosse and other sports has propelled the University's athletics program to become one of the finest in all of college sports. The Carrier Dome has also served many other roles, including commencement venue, and allowed the University to give back to the surrounding community by hosting music concerts and other events that enrich the lives of all who live in Central New York.

Carrier's impact goes far beyond supporting the Dome. It has been equally generous to the University as a whole throughout the years, including significant scholarship, advertising and athletic event support, and has been a key University business and research partner, funding the world-class Willis H. Carrier Total Indoor Environmental Quality Lab.

The University will be forever grateful for this special relationship, which spans more than 40 years, and looks forward to many more years of collaboration with Carrier.

Carrier will be Forever Orange.

THEACC.COM

The Atlantic Coast Conference's official website – theACC.com – is the source for complete conference football information. The media section of the website (theACC.com/media) offers additional information for use by media members, including access to ACC PhotoShelter, the home for conference and school logos, headshots of players and coaches from select sports and images from ACC events and championships.

ACC MEDIA PORTAL

Highlights & Press Conferences: The ACC and XOS Digital have partnered to provide individual highlight packages from all ACC-controlled regular season football and men's basketball games to approved TV news affiliates for the 2020-21 seasons. Upon the conclusion of each game, highlights will be available for local TV news affiliates to download and use in televised news programming at no cost. Outlets may access the highlights, along with any weekly head coach press conferences, through the ACC Media Portal. This portal replaces the ACC Video Clip Service (AVCS). The use of ACC game highlights provided through the portal remain subject to those restrictions outlined in the ACC News Access Guidelines. Interested affiliates should email licensing@xosdigital.com to register for the ACC Media Portal and for additional information. Approved affiliates will receive a confirmation email along with credentials to access the portal.

ACC Digital License: Per the ACC News Access Guidelines, game footage (station shot or broadcast) may not be distributed through digital platforms without a license. The ACC and XOS Digital now offer a turnkey digital highlight license specifically designed for local TV affiliates. This license covers the use of ACC game footage across official station websites, apps, and social media platforms. Distribution of in-game highlights on any platform during the broadcast window is strictly prohibited, regardless of a digital license. Interested affiliates should email licensing@xosdigital.com to receive more information or to purchase a digital license.

ACC NETWORK

Owned and operated by ESPN in partnership with the Atlantic Coast Conference, ACC Network (ACCN) and its digital platform ACCNX is a 24/7 national network dedicated to ACC sports that launched on August 22, 2019. ACCN features regular-season and tournament games from across the conference's 27 sponsored sports, plus a complement of news, information shows and original programming. ESPN has been televising ACC content since 1979 and has exclusive rights to every conference-controlled game across all sports and championships.

Carriage agreements are in place with the following video providers: AT&T U-Verse, AT&T TV NOW, Cox, DIRECTV, DISH Network, Google Fiber, Hulu Live TV, Optimum, Sling TV, Spectrum TV, Suddenlink, TVision, Verizon Fios, YouTube TV, members of the NCTC, NRTC and Vivicast, among others. All ACCN games will also be available on the ESPN app to authenticated subscribers. Fans interested in learning more about ACCN can visit GetACCN.com.

COLLEGEPRESSBOX.COM

Collegepressbox.com is the official media website for college football. Users can access and download weekly game notes, quotes, statistics, media guides, headshots, logos and more for each conference and its member schools. Login information will be distributed to accredited media or you can apply for a password at collegepressbox.com/password.

SYRACUSE SPORTS NETWORK FROM LEARFIELD

All Orange football games can be heard live on the Syracuse Sports Network from Learfield IMG College (see below list of affiliates), Cuse.com and SiriusXM Satellite Radio. Network programming is produced and distributed by Learfield IMG College of Winston-Salem, North Carolina.

"Voice of the Orange" Matt Park, now in his 18th season, handles play-by-play duties. Former Syracuse and NFL offensive lineman Adam Terry joins Park on the broadcast as the color analyst.

DINO BABERS RADIO SHOW

"The Dino Babers Show" airs live each Thursday night during the season from 7 to 8 p.m. on the Syracuse Sports Network from Learfield IMG College, Cuse.com and TuneIn.

Coach Babers and "Voice of the Orange" Matt Park discuss the Orange's previous game, preview Syracuse's upcoming opponent, and answer phone calls (888-7GOCUSE) and emails from fans. Questions can be submitted any time via the link at Cuse.com or on Twitter using the hashtag #AskDino.

MEDIA INFORMATION

GALAXY MEDIA

The flagship station for the Syracuse Sports Network from Learfield IMG College is Galaxy Media's TK99 (WTKW 99.5 FM) in downtown Syracuse.

Since 2007, Galaxy's stations (TK99, ESPN Radio 97.7 and WTLA 1200) have served as the play-by-play home for Orange football, men's and women's basketball, and men's lacrosse. Additionally, head coach Dino Babers makes regular appearances on Galaxy programs, including the popular "Gomez & Company" morning show.

WAER FM 88.3

Located on campus, WAER FM 88.3 is Syracuse University's student-run radio station. The station broadcasts all Orange football games – home and away – live.

DINO BABERS

Head Coach • Seventh Season • Career Record: 66-59 (.528)

A proven winner and respected mentor, Dino Babers was named the 30th head football coach at Syracuse University on Dec. 5, 2015. He owns a 66-59 (.528) career record and boasts nearly 40 years of experience in the profession.

Known for record-setting production on the ground and through the air during his tenure, Babers enters his seventh season on the SU sidelines. Babers' time leading the Orange has featured the best individual rushing season in program history, a multitude of passing and receiving records, a 10-win season, as well as multiple All-Americans and NFL Draft selections.

In December 2018, following Babers leading the Orange to its highest win total in nearly two decades, Syracuse Director of Athletics John Wildhack ensured the growth of the Orange would continue under Babers by announcing a contract extension that keeps the veteran coach at the helm of the program well into the future.

GROWING THE ORANGE

Babers planted the seeds of Syracuse's revival during his first season in 2016. The Orange knocked off a ranked opponent for the first time in four years, toppling ACC Coastal champion Virginia Tech at home, 31-17. Additionally, he commanded an offense that set or tied more than 40 school records, including new season standards for completions (332) and passing yards (3,855).

Babers' second campaign also featured a signature win, as Syracuse handed 2017 College Football Playoff (CFP) semifinalist Clemson its only defeat of the regular season. The Orange edged the second-ranked Tigers, 27-24. The triumph was on par with the Orange's historic upset of No. 1 Nebraska more than 30 years prior and captured the attention of the nation.

Those flashes of success proved to be harbingers of what was to come in 2018, as Babers guided the Orange to the seventh double-digit win season in program history. The Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC) Team of the Year, Syracuse went from four wins to 10 and and posted a 6-2 conference record to finish second to national champion Clemson in the ACC Atlantic Division. The six-win increase matched the 1987 squad for the second-largest improvement from one year to the next in team history, and equaled Florida and Baylor for the best turnaround by a Power-Five team from 2017 to 2018.

The Orange opened the season with four straight wins and ended it with triumphs in six of their last seven games. Their 6-1 closing stretch included a 34-18 victory over West Virginia in the Camping World Bowl, the Orange's first postseason appearance since 2013. Along the way, Syracuse protected its home field by going 6-0 in the Dome, returned to the national polls for the first time in 17 years, and made its debut in the CFP rankings.

Syracuse rose to as high as No. 12 in all three polls during the week of Nov. 11, the program's highest ranking since 1998, and closed the season at No. 15 in the final Associated Press and Amway Coaches polls.

For his efforts, Babers was named the American Football Coaches Association Region 1 Coach of the Year, the third time he was voted the top coach in the region by his peers in the AFCA. A finalist for three 2018 national coach of the year awards, Babers received co-ACC Coach of the Year honors from the AP and was selected as the East Coast Athletic Conference Coach of the Year.

Babers' vision for all three phases working together fueled the breakthrough. The Orange featured an electrifying offense, a tenacious defense and superb special teams. Offensively, the Orange ranked 11th nationally in scoring (40.2 ppg) and set the school records for most plays (1,063) and most points scored (523). They tied the all-time program mark with 62 total touchdowns, including a record 38 rushing scores. In 13 games, Syracuse scored 50+ points, a school-record, five times and topped 40 points on eight occasions.

Syracuse's opportunistic defense served as the perfect complement to the team's high-flying offense. The Orange ranked in the top 10 nationally in five defensive categories: turnovers gained (3rd - 31), interceptions (5th - 18), fumbles recovered (5th - 13), sacks (6th - 3.31 per game) and third-down defense (7th - .286). They also totaled a school-record 43 sacks.

A special teams unit led by All-ACC punter Sterling Hofrichter and Lou Groza Award-winning kicker Andre Szmyt completed the trifecta.

In 2019, Syracuse went 5-7, but finished the season strong, winning two of its last three. The Orange scored 30+ points five times and averaged 40.7 points per contest over the final three games of the year. Syracuse was among the best at taking care of the football in the passing game, finishing second in the ACC for the fewest interceptions thrown (7). Defensively, the Orange ranked fifth nationally in passes defended per game (5.67) and recorded the program's first true-road shutout since 1991 with a 24-0, season-opening victory at Liberty.

The 2020 season, as unique of a college football season as ever, thrust many young members of the Orange roster into early playing time, providing valuable experience for future seasons. Defensive backs Garrett Williams and Ja'Had Carter, as well as linebacker Stefon Thompson were all named Freshman All-Americans by various publications.

Entering the 2022 campaign, the Orange have much to build off from 2021, including the most prolific ground attack in program history. All-American running back Sean Tucker broke the program's single season rushing record (1,496) that had stood for over 40 years. The top offensive vote getter on the All-ACC team was up for a multitude of national awards. The SU defense also turned in its most stout defensive effort in a decade, finishing 19th nationally in total defense (330.1) and was 16th nationally in sacks per game (3.1).

Player development has been a hallmark of Babers' Syracuse tenure. He's coached seven All-Americans in six seasons. To put that perspective, Syracuse had one All-American in the four years prior to Babers' arrival in Central New York. Tucker, who was also a semifinalist for both the Maxwell and Doak Walker awards in 2021, was the most recent player to earn All-America honors under Babers. Szmyt, who led the NCAA in nearly every kicking category in 2018, and safety Andre Cisco, who tied for the national lead in interceptions that season, were the first duo of Orange players to earn All-America honors under Babers in the same year.

In 2019, Hofrichter added his name to that list. The Valrico, Florida native garnered seven All-America nods and became Syracuse's first Ray Guy Award finalist following a campaign in which he ranked No. 3 nationally in net punting average (43.03). Hofrichter's immediate replacement Nolan Cooney garnered All-America honors from Pro Football Focus in 2020 after setting Syracuse's single-season record for net punting (44.8 yards per punt), continuing Syracuse's tradition of success on special teams.

Receivers Amba Etta-Tawo, Steve Ishmael and punt returner Brisly Estime were Babers' first three Orange All-Americans. Quarterback Eric Dungey and receiver Ervin Philips are additional examples of players who flourished with Babers' guidance.

In 2016, Etta-Tawo left an indelible stamp on the program. He set 10 school receiving records in his one year with the Orange. He was an All-ACC First Team choice and was named to four All-America teams.

The following season, Ishmael picked up where Etta-Tawo left off. Ishmael ranked second in the FBS in receptions per game (8.8) and total catches (105). He also finished in the top 10 in receiving yards per game (4th - 112.2) and total receiving yardage (7th - 1,347). Like Etta-Tawo, Ishmael was an All-ACC First Team choice and an All-American, earning recognition from nine outlets, including four of the five NCAA consensus selectors.

Syracuse has recorded three of the top four season total-offense figures in team history under Dino Babers.

Philips caught 179 of his school-record 223 passes in the two seasons he played for Babers. In 2017, Philips and Ishmael combined for an ACC-record 194 catches to close their careers ranked No. 1 and No. 2 on the program's all-time receptions list.

A four-year starter who played three of his collegiate seasons for Babers, Dungey finished his Orange career as the holder of 25 school records. Among the most prominent are the all-time Syracuse marks for passing yards (9,340) and total offense (11,333 yards).

Overall, 34 of Babers' Syracuse pupils have earned All-ACC honors with eight – Tucker, Mikel Jones, Cody Roscoe, Ishmael, Etta-Tawo, Hofrichter, Cisco and Szmyt – being named to the first team.

Twenty-five of Babers' former Orange players have gone on to sign NFL contracts, including draft choices Cisco, Zaire Franklin, Hofrichter, Ifeatu Melifonwu, Chris Slayton and Alton Robinson.

MAKING THE FALCONS FAST

Babers took over the Bowling Green program in 2014 and led the Falcons to an 18-9 record in his two years there, including victories over three Big Ten teams (Indiana - 2014; Maryland, Purdue - 2015). The Falcons went 8-6 in Babers' first season and captured the MAC East Division championship with a 5-3 league mark. Bowling Green lost the MAC title game to Northern Illinois, but rebounded for a 33-28 win versus South Alabama in the Raycom Media Camellia Bowl, BGSU's first bowl victory since 2004.

In 2015, Bowling Green was 10-3 under Babers and 7-1 against MAC competition to win the MAC East once again. The Falcons got the better of MAC West champion Northern Illinois in the league title game to win BGSU's second conference championship in three seasons. Babers presided over one of the most explosive offenses in the country, as the Falcons ranked in the top 10 nationally in first downs (1st - 389), total offense (4th - 546.8 ypg), passing offense (5th - 366.8 ypg), third-down conversion percentage (5th - .502) and scoring (6th - 42.2 ppg).

Babers mentored 17 All-MAC performers at BGSU, including 11 in 2015. Falcons quarterback Matt Johnson was the recipient of the 2015 MAC Vern Smith Leadership Award, presented to the conference's top football player, and earned MAC Offensive Player of the Year honors. In addition, Johnson finished second nationally in passing yards (4,946), touchdown passes (46) and ranked fifth in passing yards per game (353.3). He set the MAC single-season record for touchdown passes and eclipsed Ben Roethlisberger's conference record for the most passing yards in a season.

Another of Babers' charges – Roger Lewis – also had a standout 2015 campaign. Lewis finished second in the FBS in receiving yards (1,544), third in touchdown catches (16) and fifth in receiving yards per game (110.3). He became the first Falcon since 1994 to earn All-America honors from the Associated Press (third team) and he received second-team recognition from the Football Writers Association of America.

EXCELLENCE AT EASTERN ILLINOIS

Babers excelled in his first head coaching position, leading Eastern Illinois to a 19-7 record in two seasons, including a 14-1 mark against Ohio Valley Conference (OVC) foes. His 2012 and 2013 Panther teams won the conference championship and earned FCS playoff berths. For his work, Babers was named the OVC Coach of the Year and the AFCA Region 3 Coach of the Year after both seasons.

In 2013, the Panthers finished 12-2, including an 8-0 conference record, and reached the FCS quarterfinals. The Panthers were ranked as high as No. 2 in the polls and led the nation in total yards (589.5) and points per game (48.2). EIU averaged 372.4 passing yards per contest and 217.1 rushing yards per game on its way to outscoring its opponents, 636-270. The offense was diverse with four different receivers totaling at least 700 yards and eight touchdowns apiece, and two running backs who combined for 2,539 yards rushing.

One of those receivers was 2012 Ohio Valley Conference Player of the Year Erik Lora, who set league single-season records with 136 receptions and 1,664 receiving yards. Lora followed up his stellar season with 123 catches for 1,544 yards and a conference-record 19 touchdowns in 2013.

Upon his arrival at EIU in 2012, Babers took a Panthers team that had finished last in the Ohio Valley Conference in 2011 and led them to a first-place finish with a 6-1 league mark. It was just the fourth time in OVC history that a team went from worst to first in the span of a season.

THE $138 MILLION MAN

The cornerstone of Babers' Eastern Illinois teams was quarterback Jimmy Garoppolo, who won the Walter Payton Award (the FCS equivalent of the Heisman Trophy) after throwing for 5,050 yards and 53 touchdowns as a senior in 2013. Garoppolo, who now plays for the San Francisco 49ers, passed for 8,873 yards and 84 scores in his two seasons with Babers to transform himself into a second-round draft pick. After spending his first three NFL seasons with the New England Patriots, Garoppolo was traded to the 49ers in 2017. He signed a $137.5 million contract with San Francisco in February 2018, making him one of the league's highest paid players. In 2019, Garoppolo guided the 49ers to the NFC title and an appearance in Super Bowl LIV.

PROFESSIONAL BUILDING BLOCKS

Prior to taking the helm at Eastern Illinois, Babers spent four seasons at Baylor in various capacities. Before that, he worked for four years at UCLA as assistant head coach, running backs coach and wide receivers coach and also had tenures at Texas A&M and Arizona as the offensive coordinator.

A native of San Diego, California, Babers has also made assistant coaching stops at Pittsburgh, San Diego State, Purdue, Northern Arizona, UNLV and Eastern Illinois. He began his collegiate coaching career as a graduate assistant at Hawaii in 1984. Babers spent the next two seasons in a similar position at Arizona State before landing his first full-time job at Eastern Illinois in 1987.

In 1998, while serving as the offensive coordinator at Arizona, he directed the Wildcats' attack that ranked in the top 20 in scoring offense (15th) and total offense (18th). The Wildcats were 12-1 that season and finished fourth in both polls.

Babers has coached or recruited more than 70 NFL players, including 33 draft picks, four All-Pros (Lance Briggs, Matthew Slater, Josh Gordon, Az-Zahir Hakim) and three Pro Bowlers (Briggs, Slater, Gordon).

Fifteen of his protégés have been picked in the first three rounds of the NFL Draft, including six in the first two rounds. Arizona running back Trung Canidate was the first-round choice of the St. Louis Rams in 2000. Along with Jimmy Garoppolo, wide receivers Brian Alford (Purdue), Will Blackwell (San Diego State), Dennis Northcutt (Arizona) and Josh Gordon (Baylor) were selected in the second round.

A 1984 graduate of the University of Hawaii with a bachelor's degree in education, Babers started at three different positions (outside linebacker, strong safety, running back) for the Warriors during his career, while earning Western Athletic Conference All-Academic honors. As a senior, he served as Hawaii's special teams captain and was the squad's leading rusher.

Babers tried out for the BC Lions of the Canadian Football League before an injury in training camp ended his playing career.

Babers, who received his master's degree in education administration and supervision from Arizona State in 1987, and his wife, Susan, have four daughters – Breeahnah, Tasha, Jazzmin and Paris. Jazzmin was a member of the Texas A&M volleyball team from 2012-16. She is married to former Orange offensive lineman Koda Martin. Breeahnah married Vincent Palmieri in June 2018.

ROBERT ANAE

Offensive Coordinator • First Season

The architect of the unit that ranked third in the FBS in total offense last season at Virginia, Robert Anae was hired as Syracuse's offensive coordinator in December of 2021. He brings nearly 40 years of experience developing some of the nation's top offenses to 'Cuse for the 2022 season.

"Coach Anae has proven to lead a number of successful offenses in his career, including in the ACC," said head coach Dino Babers when Anae was hired in December. "We're excited to welcome him and his family to Syracuse and look forward to him getting started with our team."

Anae joins the Syracuse staff having spent 15 seasons as an FBS offensive coordinator, including the last six in the ACC at Virginia and nine at BYU, with additional stops at Arizona, Texas Tech, UNLV, Boise State, Ricks College and Hawaii in his coaching tenure.

"I want to thank Dino Babers for this opportunity," Anae said at the time of his hiring. "He's a friend I've known for many years and look forward to working alongside a great offensive mind that as an offensive staff we can use at our disposal."

A three-time nominee for the Frank Broyles Award as the nation's top assistant coach, Anae's offense has finished in the top-25 of 10 different NCAA offensive statistical categories a total of 56 times in his 15-year tenure as an OC, including 21 top-10 rankings.

His most recent unit – the 2021 Virginia squad – was one-of-five programs in the FBS this season to average over 500 yards of total offense, averaging 515.8. Their total offense number and passing yardage average (396.2) are both program records. They ranked second nationally in passing yardage last year.

In 2021, Brennan Armstrong broke single season quarterback records for touchdown passes (31), passing yards (4,449) and total offense (4,700) at the end of the regular season. He's the latest in a line of quarterbacks to play in the NFL after working in Anae's offenses. Bryce Perkins (Rams), Kurt Benkert (Packers) and Taysom Hill (Saints) are all currently on NFL rosters, while Max Hall and John Beck both had tenures in the league as well.

Between 2013 and 2021, quarterbacks under Anae have averaged 3,368 passing yards and 513 rushing yards a season for an average of 3,880 yards of total offense. The receiving units have also been balanced under Anae at Virginia, as his offenses created the first UVA receiving trios to each amass at least 600 receiving yards in the same season. That has happened three times in five years.

In his six seasons at UVA, the Cavaliers were bowl eligible in all but his first season in Charlottesville, highlighted by ACC Coastal Division Championship and trip to the Orange Bowl in 2019.

Prior to his tenure at Virginia, Anae spent the 2013-15 seasons as the offensive coordinator/inside receivers coach at BYU in what was his second stint with the Cougars. That tenure culminated with BYU finishing No. 14 in the final rankings and having the No. 10 ranked rushing attack in the country. Hill and running back Jamaal Williams both ran for over 1,000 yards as the offense netted 3,475 yards on the ground – a school record. He was also at BYU from 2005-10 in the same role.

Anae's offense produced the top-three rushers all-time at BYU – Williams: 3,901; Harvey Unga: 3,455; and Curtis Brown: 3,221 – and the program's top wide receiver in terms of receiving yards, catches and touchdowns – Austin Collie: 3,225 yards, 215 catches and 30 touchdowns. Additionally, Dennis Pitta broke BYU's receptions and yardage records by a tight end under Anae: 2,901 yards and 221. Pitta was a consensus All-American in 2009 and fellow Cougars' tight end Johnny Harline was a first team All-American in 2006.

In between his stints at BYU, he worked at Arizona as the offensive line coach and run game coordinator. His unit blocked for the nation's leading rusher in 2012, Ka'Deem Carey. Carey totaled 1,929 yards and 23 touchdowns on 303 carries. In addition to the success on the ground, where his unit protected QB Nick Foles to lead the Wildcats to the third-ranked passing offense in the country in 2011 (360.8 yards per game).

Anae's first job at a Power 5 program came when he was on Mike Leach's inaugural staff at Texas Tech, where he was the offensive line coach from 2000-04, during a time where the Red Raiders put together one of the most prolific offenses in NCAA history. Three of his five years on staff, Texas Tech led the nation in passing and were never outside the top-11. They also led the nation in total offense in 2003 (582.8), a mark that currently stands as the eighth-highest total in FBS history.

Anae began his coaching career as a graduate assistant working with the offensive line at Hawaii under Dick Tomey in 1986-87, two seasons after Babers was a graduate assistant under Tomey. He then was a graduate assistant for a pair of years at BYU in 1990 and 1991 before coaching the offensive line at Ricks College in Idaho from 1992-95. Anae coached the offensive front for a year at Boise State in 1996 before moving to UNLV for a pair of seasons, the final as running game coordinator along with his line duties in 1998.

He and his wife, Liane, have two sons and a daughter. His son Famika played on the offensive line at BYU before ending his career during the 2012 season due to injuries. Anae's father, Famika Sr., and brothers Brad and Matt, also played football for BYU. His pride and joy are his four grandchildren ages 1-5.

Anae graduated from BYU in 1986 with a degree in political science. He went on to earn two more degrees, an M.S. in sociology in 1990 from Hawai'i and a PH.D. in sociology in 1999 from BYU.

TONY WHITE

Defensive Coordinator/Linebackers • Third Season

After posting the best total defense mark in a decade at Syracuse in 2021, Tony White enters his third season as the Orange's defensive coordinator adding oversight of the linebackers for the 2022 season.

A disciple of defensive guru Rocky Long and the two-time Scout.com Mountain West Recruiter of the Year, White has brought the 3-3-5 to 'Cuse, resulting in one of the best statistical seasons in a decade in 2021, plus multiple NFL Draft picks, All-Americans and First Team All-ACC selections in his first two seasons at the helm of the defense.

In 2021, Syracuse held opponents to 330 yards per game, which ranked 19th nationally and second in the ACC. Orange stars Mikel Jones (LB) and Cody Roscoe (DE) earned First Team All-ACC honors, while Garrett Williams, Duce Chestnut and Josh Black were also honored by the league. Syracuse made a habit of getting after the quarterback, ranking third in the ACC in sacks (3.1) and 16th in the FBS.

In his first season at Syracuse, three Syracuse players - Garrett Williams, Ja'Had Carter and Stefon Thompson - earned Freshman All-America honors from various publications. The Orange started as many as six freshmen on defense and five on multiple occasions that year, the most in program history. Chestnut added to that total in 2021, earning the honor from multiple outlets, and making four Freshman All-America selections from the SU defense in White's first two seasons.

White joined the Orange after serving as the cornerbacks coach and defensive passing game coordinator at Arizona State from 2018-19. He arrived in Syracuse after a short stint as the Sun Devils' defensive coordinator, a position he was appointed to in December 2019. He ran the defense in ASU's 20-14 victory over Florida State in the 2019 Tony the Tiger Sun Bowl, a game in which the Sun Devils shut out the Seminoles for nearly three quarters and scored a defensive touchdown.

In White's two seasons at Arizona State, the Sun Devils allowed just 13 passing plays of 40+ yards – a marked improvement over the 34 such plays ASU gave up in the two years before White got to Tempe. The Sun Devil secondary made dramatic gains in White's first year, climbing 50 spots in the NCAA's passing defense rankings. That growth continued in 2019, as Arizona State finished the year 12th in the country with 65 passes defended. Three of White's cornerbacks – Kobe Williams (2019), Jack Jones (2019) and Aashari Crosswell (2018) – were All-Pac-12 Honorable Mention selections.

Before arriving at ASU, White cemented himself as one of the nation's top rising assistant coaches during a nine-year stint (2009-17) under Long at San Diego State. While helping the Aztec secondary consistently rank as one of the elite groups in the nation, White was named the Scout.com Mountain West Recruiter of the Year twice (2011, 2013). He was also recognized as the top recruiter among non-Power-Five schools in 2014 by Rivals.com.

White's tenure coincided with one of the most successful eras in SDSU history. The Aztecs went to eight bowl games in White's nine seasons and won three Mountain West Conference championships (2012, 2015, 2016).

SDSU finished with pass coverage grades ranked 31st or better in three of White's last four years with the Aztecs, according to Pro Football Focus. In 2017, the Aztecs were 11th nationally and first in the Mountain West in total defense (314.5 ypg) and ranked 15th in the country in passing yards allowed (178.7). The strong showing followed a 2016 campaign in which San Diego State led the FBS with 26 interceptions.

One of White's star pupils, Damontae Kazee, was instrumental to the success. Kazee became the first cornerback in conference history to win Mountain West Defensive Player of the Year honors twice, capturing the award in 2015 and 2016. Kazee also garnered 2015 USA Today Second Team All-America recognition and was selected by the Atlanta Falcons in the fifth round of the 2017 NFL Draft.

White also aided the development of cornerback J.J. Whittaker during that period. Whittaker earned All-Mountain West Second Team honors in 2014 and 2015 and was an All-MW Honorable Mention pick in 2013.

In 2015, the Aztecs authored one of the top defensive seasons in program history en route to the Mountain West title. San Diego State ranked second nationally with 23 interceptions and was No. 10 in passing efficiency defense (108.71). The performance came after a 2014 season in which SDSU ranked third in the FBS in defensive passing efficiency (112.1) and surrendered just 10 touchdowns through the air (second among Mountain West schools).

In 2013, White earned Scout.com Mountain West Recruiter of the Year honors for the second time in three seasons. On the field, Whittaker had a breakout first year under White's tutelage. He led the Aztecs with 14 passes defended, good for the fifth in the conference.

The first time White's recruiting prowess was formally recognized was in 2011 when he was tabbed Scout.com's Mountain West Recruiter of the Year. Again the award was coupled with on-field success by his protégés. Both of SDSU's starting cornerbacks, Leon McFadden and Larry Parker, earned first-team all-league honors. Parker, who was named an honorable mention All-American by SI.com, led the Mountain West with seven interceptions to tie for fourth nationally in his first season as a starter. McFadden, who topped the Mountain West in passes defended twice in his career, went on to become a third-round draft pick of the Cleveland Browns in 2013.

White came to San Diego State after spending the 2008 season with Long at New Mexico. White was in charge of the Lobos' linebackers and mentored two all-conference selections (Zach Arnett and Herbert Felder). The 2008 Lobos ranked 26th nationally against the run, 45th in total defense and 46th in scoring defense.

Before moving to Albuquerque, White got his start in the college ranks as the graduate assistant for football operations at UCLA in 2007. White assisted with the day-to-day running of the program, recruiting administration and distributed player information to pro scouts. In 2006, White served as the head football coach at St. Genevieve High School in Panorama City, California, where he led the team to its best record in 13 seasons and coached two first-team All-CIF selections.

As a player, White was a three-year starter and four-year letterman at outside linebacker for Bob Toledo at UCLA from 1997-2000. White made 64 tackles as a senior captain in 2000 and earned the program's N.N. Sugarman Award for Best Leadership. After his collegiate career ended, White played four seasons in the Canadian Football League for the Ottawa Renegades (now the Redblacks) and Hamilton Tiger-Cats.

BOB LIGASHESKY

Special Teams Coordinator • First Season

A 37-year coaching veteran, Bob Ligashesky has been added to the Syracuse football staff as the team's Special Teams Coordinator for the 2022 season.

"I'm excited to welcome Bob and his family to Syracuse," said head coach Dino Babers at the time of Ligashesky's hiring. "He has a long track record of coaching outstanding special teams units in both college football and the NFL, and I look forward to him getting started with our program."

Ligashesky's career includes 12 seasons in the National Football League, where he won a Super Bowl as the Pittsburgh Steelers' Special Teams Coordinator in 2008. He also has a pedigree of developing some of the best kickers in college football. He most recently spent the 2021 season at Bowling Green, where Falcons' kicker Nate Needham led the nation in field goal percentage (.950).

"I'm thankful and appreciative of this opportunity to work at Syracuse University," Ligashesky said when he was hired. "I can't wait to get to work."

Prior to his time at BGSU, he spent the 2016-2020 seasons on the Illinois staff as the Special Teams Coordinator for all five seasons and also coached tight ends in 2016-17. While with the Illini, he mentored Blake Hayes to be the 2019 BIG Ten Punter of the Year and Chase McLaughlin to earn the 2018 Bakken-Anderson Big Ten Kicker of the Year award.

In his 12 years in the NFL, he coached the Texans (2013-15/Special Teams Coordinator), Buccaneers (2012/Special Teams Coordinator), Raiders (2011/Special Teams Assistant), Broncos (2010/Tight Ends), Steelers (2007-09/Special Teams Coordinator) Rams (2005-06/Special Teams Coordinator) and Jaguars (2004/Assistant Special Teams Coach).

Ligashesky worked with some top NFL talent, most notably kicker Sebastian Janikowski in the season in which he set the then NFL record for longest made field goal (63 yards). He connected on 89-percent of his field goals that season as well. He later coached Connor Barth in Tampa Bay for one season. That same year, Barth talled a career-high 123 points, connecting on 28 of his 33 field goals and going a perfect 39-of-39 on PATs.

Before coaching in the pro ranks, he spent 19 seasons in the college game. He was the tight ends coach and Special Teams Coordinator at Pittsburgh from 2000-03, where he and Babers overlapped for one season (2003). Prior to joining the Panthers, he spent nine seasons at Bowling Green, serving as the Assistant Head Coach ('99), and coaching linebackers and special teams. For the 1989-90 seasons, he was at Kent State as the Special Teams Coordinator and coached outside linebackers. He also had graduate assistant stops at Arizona State (1986-88) and Wake Forest (1985).

CHRIS ACHUFF

Defensive Line • Third Season

A seasoned collegiate coach with an additional two years of NFL experience, Chris Achuff was named Syracuse's linebackers coach in March 2020 and transitions back to defensive line for the 2022 season.

Achuff has 16 years of full-time defensive line coaching experience in both college football and the NFL, having joined the Orange after most recently serving as the defensive line coach for the Arizona Cardinals where he worked with former Syracuse superstar and 2019 NFL All-Pro Chandler Jones.

Achuff's first two seasons at SU were spent grooming a young crop of 'Cuse linebackers into one of the best units in the ACC, capped off by Mikel Jones earning First Team All-ACC honors in 2021 after finishing second in the league in tackles. Jones was bouyed by standouts Stefon Thompson (who earned Freshman All-America honors in 2020 under Achuff's tutelage) and Marlowe Wax, who combined for 239 tackles, 30.0 tackles for loss and 15.0 sacks in 2021. As a defense, Syracuse held opponents to 330 yards per game, which ranked 19th nationally and second in the ACC. Syracuse made a habit of getting after the quarterback, ranking third in the ACC in sacks (3.1) and 16th in the FBS.

In his first season at Syracuse, Jones was one-of-two players nationally with multiple interceptions, forced fumbles and fumble recoveries. He also led all linebackers nationally with four interceptions, en route to earning All-ACC honors. As a team, the Orange defense finished the year third nationally in takeaways.

In his two seasons in Arizona, he was the team's assistant defensive line coach in 2018 and was promoted to defensive line coach in 2019. In 2018, Jones had a team-best 13 sacks as the Cardinals tied for fifth in the league with 49 sacks overall. Jones was even better in 2019. He finished second in the NFL with 19 sacks and tied for the league lead with eight forced fumbles to earn All-Pro First Team honors and his third Pro Bowl invitation. Combined with his 11 sacks in 2016 and 17 sacks in 2017, Jones became the first player in franchise history to record 10+ sacks in four consecutive seasons.

Prior to his time with the Cardinals, Achuff spent the first 19 years of his career at the collegiate level, including stints as the defensive line coach at Baylor (2008-16), Tennessee-Martin (2006-07), Charleston Southern (2005) and Chattanooga (2004).

During Achuff's tenure at Baylor, the Bears won back-to-back Big 12 Conference championships (2012-13) and he coached three All-Americans 12 all-conference selections and two bowl game MVPs. Defensive tackle Phil Taylor was a first-round pick of the Cleveland Browns in 2011. Defensive tackle Andrew Billings was the 2015 Big 12 co-Defensive Player of the Year and Defensive Lineman of the Year, while also being named an All-American. Billings was selected by the Cincinnati Bengals in the fourth round of the 2016 NFL Draft.

Before his nine-year stint in Waco, Achuff worked for two years at UT Martin, helping the Skyhawks win the Ohio Valley Conference (OVC) title and advance to the FCS playoffs with a 9-3 record in 2006. UT Martin led the OVC and ranked 17th nationally in run defense and sixth nationally in total defense en route to its league title that season.

While at Charleston Southern in 2005, Achuff helped the Buccaneers win their first conference championship, while also achieving the first winning record (7-4) in school history. CSU was named the 2005 Division I-AA Team of the Year by College Sports Report. Achuff spent the 2004 season as the defensive line coach at Chattanooga after working for two seasons as a graduate assistant at Penn State (2002-03).

Achuff began his coaching career at his alma mater, Bloomsburg University, in 1998 as a student assistant working with the team's linebackers. Achuff then coached outside linebackers and led the strength and conditioning program at Bryant College in 1999. From there, he moved on to Kutztown University where he was in charge of the linebackers and strength and conditioning for two seasons (2000-01). Achuff spent the 2017 season at Navarro (Texas) Junior College working with the defensive line.

A native of Bellefonte, Pennsylvania, Achuff played linebacker at Bloomsburg (1994-97) where he was a part of four PSAC championship teams.

He and his wife, Kim, have one daughter, Julia, and two sons, Carter and Tyler.

JASON BECK

Quarterbacks • First Season

Jason Beck, who has been the position coach for three active NFL quarterbacks, joined the Syracuse staff in December to coach the position after helping lead the nation's No. 2 passing offense in 2021.

"Coach Beck has developed a number of outstanding quarterbacks in his career," said head coach Dino Babers in December, upon Beck's hire. "We welcome him and his family to Syracuse and I'm excited to have him get started with our program."

Beck, who has nine years of experience as an FBS quarterbacks coach and 15 years collegiate coaching experience, comes to Syracuse after spending the prior six seasons on the Virginia staff as the quarterbacks coach.

"I'm excited for this opportunity and looking forward to coming to Syracuse and getting to work," Beck said shortly after accepting the position. "I'm thankful to Coach Babers for this great opportunity and excited to continue to work with Coach Anae."

Between 2013 and 2021, quarterbacks under Beck have averaged 3,367 passing yards and 514 rushing yards a season for an average of 3,881 yards of total offense. His latest protégé, Brennan Armstrong, currently holds 8 different offensive records at Virginia and was a semifinalist for the Maxwell Award, Davey O'Brien Award and Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award, as well as a finalist for the Manning Award this season.

The 2021 Cavaliers offense ranked near the top of the FBS in a number of different national statistics, including passing offense (2nd/392.6), total offense (3rd/515.8), first downs (11th/318), 3rd down conversions (15th/.459) and scoring offense (22nd/34.6).

Prior to Armstrong, Beck guided Bryce Perkins' career at UVA. Perkins graduated as the program's career record holder for total offense (7,910) after playing only two seasons in Charlottesville (2018-19). Under Beck, Perkins also owned the top two spots in the Cavalier record book for single-season and single-game total offense, until both were surpassed by Armstrong this season. His total offense number (4,307) in 2019 ranked No. 6 nationally and No. 1 in the ACC. Perkins also set the single-season passing record at UVA with 3,538 passing yards in 2019, which ranked No. 16 in the nation and No. 3 in the ACC. Perkins is currently on the LA Rams roster.

Under Beck, the Cavaliers quarterback prior to Perkins also went on to an NFL career. Kurt Benkert, who is currently Aaron Rodgers' backup in Green Bay, finished a two-year career at Virginia with 5,759 passing yards and 46 career touchdowns.

Virginia has only had three quarterbacks throw for 20+ touchdowns in multiple seasons. All six of those seasons coincided with Beck's tenure at Virginia in Armstrong (2020-21), Perkins (2018-19) and Benkert (2016-17). At Virginia, he helped UVA become bowl eligible in each of each of the last five seasons, including an ACC Coastal Division Championship in 2019 and a trip to the Orange Bowl.

Prior to joining the Virginia staff, he spent three seasons at his alma mater, coaching quarterbacks at BYU from 2013-15 where he coached current New Orleans Saints QB Taysom Hill. In 2015, after Hill suffered a season-ending injury, Beck coached freshman Tanner Magnum to be the nation's only freshman quarterback to throw for more than 3,000 yards and post a completion percentage north of 60-percent. That came on the heels of another year where Hill's season was cut short in 2014. Beck helped BYU successfully navigate the final seven games of the regular season without the star QB. Hill and Christian Stewart combined for 3,623 yards and 32 touchdowns on the year, including 25 TDs by Stewart. As a sophomore quarterback in 2013, Hill passed for 2,938 yards and 19 TDs while also rushing for 1,344 yards and 10 TDs under Beck's tutelage.

Beck spent the 2012 season as the offensive coordinator at Simon Fraser. Beck turned an offense that ranked last in the Great Northwest Athletic Conference in total offense, passing offense and scoring offense in 2011 into the league's No. 1-rated attack in all three categories during the program's first year as a full NCAA Division II member in 2012.

Beck served as quarterbacks coach at Weber State 2009-2011. Under his tutelage, Wildcat quarterback Cameron Higgins set school records for most career passing yards (12,274), most career touchdowns passes (98), most career total touchdowns (105), most career pass completions (935) and career passing efficiency rating (144.5). Higgins completed his career as one of the most prolific players in Big Sky Conference history, still holding the career passing yardage record (48).

Prior to Weber State, he spent the 2008 season on Les Miles' staff at LSU as an offensive intern and the 2007 season as an offensive intern on Bronco Mendenhall's staff at BYU in the same role.

As a player, Beck spent three seasons at BYU (2004-06) after one-year stops at College of the Canyons (2003) and Ventura College (2002) as a quarterback. He spent much of his time at BYU as a backup, but totaled 553 yards through the air in his career, including 305 yards on 20-of-28 passing in his lone start in a 38-0 victory over Utah State his senior season. At College of the Canyons, he led the Cougars to an 11-1 record and No. 4 ranking nationally among junior colleges.

Beck earned bachelor's and master's degrees in communications from BYU in 2006 and 2011. He is married to former BYU soccer standout Jaime Rendich, and they have a daughter, Peyton, and twin sons, Cameron and Jackson.

MICHAEL JOHNSON

Wide Receivers • First Season

Veteran coach Michael Johnson joined the Syracuse as the program's wide receivers coach for the 2022 season, bringing an NFL and collegiate coaching tenure that spans over 20 years at the sport's highest levels.

"I'm excited to welcome Michael and his family to Syracuse," said head coach Dino Babers at the time of Johnson's hiring. "Michael has years of coaching experience at both the NFL and college levels and I look forward to him getting to work."

Johnson most recently coached at Florida Atlantic as the team's Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks coach in 2021. His career also includes stops with Mississippi State, Oregon, The King's Academy, UCLA, San Francisco 49ers, Baltimore Ravens, Atlanta Falcons, San Diego Chargers and Oregon State.

"I'm excited to be here," Johnson said when he joined the program. "I can't wait to get to work with the staff and help our team compete for championships."

At FAU, Johnson helped N'Kosi Perry rank in the top-55 nationally of seven major passing categories, including: Passing Efficiency (55), Passing TDs (41), Passing Yards (51), Passing Yards Per Game (49), Passing Yards Per Completion (34), Points Responsible For (51) and Points Responsible For Per game (48).

He last coached wideouts with Mississippi State in 2019 in an offense that averaged over 400 yards of total offense per game.

Prior to that, he spent three seasons at Oregon. A strong recruiter, Johnson helped being in the No. 5 ranked recruiting class nationally in 2018. On the field, Johnson's wide receiver unit featured the best individual performance at the position in program history in 2018. Junior Dillon Mitchell finished with 75 catches for a single-season record 1,184 yards receiving, which also led the Pac-12, and 10 touchdowns. He was named second-team All-Pac-12 by both conference coaches and The Associated Press.

Before his time at Oregon, Johnson was the head coach at The King's Academy from 2014-16 in Sunnyvale, California, where he coached his highly recruited son, Michael Johnson Jr.

Johnson spent the 2011 season as the offensive coordinator/wide receivers coach at UCLA. In his one year with the Bruins, he helped them to the Pac-12 title game and served as the interim head coach in the Fight Hunger Bowl. That season, wide receiver Nelson Rosario finished fifth in the conference in receiving yards (1,161).

His time in Westwood came on the heels of a two-year stint with the San Francisco 49ers, serving as the offensive coordinator in 2010 after working with quarterbacks in 2009. He played a key role in the development of Shaun Hill and Alex Smith. In '09, the duo combined for 23 passing touchdowns, which was the most for the team since the 2003 season.

In a two-year stint with the Baltimore Ravens (2006-07), Johnson was the wide receivers coach, helping veteran wideout Derek Mason post his sixth-career 1,000-yard season in 2007. He also coached Mark Clayton to record 939 yards receiving and five touchdowns in 2006, emerging as the Ravens' top playmaker.

Johnson spent the four previous seasons with the Atlanta Falcons, coaching quarterbacks from 2003-05 and wide receivers in 2002. He mentored Michael Vick to three-straight Pro Bowls in his time in the QB room. Vick passed for 2,412 yards and 15 touchdowns in 2005, while ranking second on the team with 597 rushing yards. Vick became the first NFL quarterback to throw for more than 250 yards and run for more than 100 yards in a single game at Denver during the 2004 season.

Johnson's first NFL coaching job came with the San Diego Chargers in 2000. He was the quarterbacks coach for a unit that had Drew Brees, Jim Harbaugh, Ryan Leaf and Doug Flutie over his two years with the group. Flutie threw for 3,476 passing yards in 2001, while Johnson mentored the then rookie Brees at the start of his record-breaking career.

He began his coaching career at Oregon State, where he coached both wide receivers and quarterbacks in his tenure. In 1999, he helped guide the Beavers program to their first bowl game since 1960.

Johnson was a record-setting quarterback at Akron (1988-89) and also played at Arizona State and Mesa Community College. He went on to play four seasons in the World Football League and Canadian Football League.

Johnson and his wife Louan have one daughter, Taylor, and one son, Michael Jr. Michael Jr. plays quarterback at Florida Atlantic University and Taylor was a track and field student-athlete at Nebraska.

MIKE LYNCH

Running Backs • Seventh Season

A versatile coach who has taught every position on offense, Mike Lynch is in his third season as Syracuse's running backs coach. In addition to tutoring the team's ball carriers, Lynch was Syracuse's offensive coordinator from 2018-2019. He served as the Orange's co-offensive coordinator and offensive line coach in 2016 and 2017.

Overall, Lynch is in his 11th campaign working with Dino Babers and his seventh season with the Orange.

Lynch's unit shattered decades old records in 2021 behind All-American running back Sean Tucker. As a team, Syracuse totaled the fifth-most rushing yards in a single season in program history (2,562), but it was Tucker who posted the most productive season by an SU back ever. A semifinalist for both the Doak Walker and Maxwell Awards, Tucker posted the fourth-most rushing yards per game in the country (124.7) and eclipsed Joe Morris' 42-year old rushing record to finish with 1,496 yards. He also finished third nationally in yards from scrimmage (1,751) and scored 14 total touchdowns. He was the top vote getter on offense for the All-ACC Team. This came on the heels of a breakout rookie season in which Tucker became the third Syracuse freshman to post multiple 100-yard ground games and his 626 yards rushing represented the third-best total by an first-year Orange performer.

In his first year as sole offensive coordinator, Lynch directed a 2018 Syracuse attack that propelled the program to its first double-digit win season in 17 years and the No. 15 final ranking in the Associated Press Top 25 and Amway Coaches polls. Behind record-setting quarterback Eric Dungey, the Orange ranked 11th nationally in scoring (40.2 ppg) and set the school records for season plays (1,063) and points (523). The Orange tied the program mark with 62 total touchdowns, including a record 38 rushing scores. After the season, Lynch pupil Dontae Strickland signed as a free agent with the Arizona Cardinals.

In 2019, Syracuse tallied 30+ points five times and averaged 40.7 points per contest over the final three games of the season. The Orange were among the best at taking care of the football in the passing game, finishing second in the ACC for the fewest passes had intercepted (7). Running back Moe Neal was Syracuse's leading rusher for the second straight year and completed his career ninth in program history with 2,560 rushing yards.

When Lynch first arrived in Central New York, he served as the Orange's co-offensive coordinator and offensive line coach for two seasons. During that time, he laid the foundation for the program's breakout 2018 campaign. In 2017, the Orange were third in the ACC in total offense (456.3 ypg) and second in passing (294.8 ypg). Lynch's work with the offensive line paved the way for four 500+ yard total offense games. Offensive tackle Jamar McGloster, now a member of the CFL's Ottawa Redblacks, signed a free-agent contract with the San Francisco 49ers after the season.

Lynch's first year at Syracuse in 2016 marked the dawn of a new era for the program. The transition from a run-based scheme to the up-tempo spread favored by Babers resulted in more than 40 school records being set. Among them were new season standards for completions (332) and passing yards (3,855). The play of Lynch's unit was critical to the production. The Orange front five protected a collection of quarterbacks who ranked 11th nationally in passing at 321.3 yards per game.

Lynch came to Syracuse after helping run one of the most explosive offenses in college football at Bowling Green. As the co-offensive coordinator, as well as the offensive line and running backs coach for the Falcons in 2015, Bowling Green ranked in the top 10 nationally in first downs (1st - 389), total offense (4th - 546.8 ypg), passing offense (5th - 366.8 ypg), third-down conversion percentage (5th - .502) and scoring offense (6th - 42.2 ppg). The unit powered the Falcons to the Mid-American Conference (MAC) title and an appearance in the 2015 GoDaddy Bowl.

Lynch's tutelage helped produce seven 2015 All-MAC selections on offense, including linemen Alex Huettel (second team), Jacob Bennett (second team) and running back Travis Greene (first team). Huettel earned All-America honors from Phil Steele and was selected to participate in the 2016 East-West Shrine Bowl.

Before adding co-offensive coordinator and offensive line coach to his duties, Lynch served as Bowling Green's running backs coach in 2014. That season, he mentored the trio of Greene, Fred Coppet and Andre Givens. The threesome combined for 2,192 yards and 26 touchdowns on the ground to help the Falcons capture the MAC East Division crown and win the inaugural Raycom Media Camellia Bowl.

Prior to his stint at Bowling Green, Lynch was an assistant coach from 2005-13 at Eastern Illinois. He spent his final two years at EIU as the running backs coach under Babers and coached two 1,000-yard rushers. All-Ohio Valley Conference honoree Jake Walker ran for 1,133 yards and 12 touchdowns in 2012. The following season, Shepard Little was named to the All-OVC First Team after rushing for 1,551 yards and 15 scores.

Most of Lynch's first six years at EIU were spent coaching the wide receivers. While in that position, he guided the career of 2006 All-American Micah Rucker and led several productive units, including a 2011 Panther receiving corps that accounted for 20 of the team's 34 touchdowns.

Lynch got his first taste of coaching in 1999 as a restricted earnings coach at Montana. After a year with the Grizzlies, Lynch spent five seasons at Utah State. While with the Aggies, he coached three tight ends who signed with NFL teams. Chris Cooley, a two-time Pro Bowler, was the third-round selection of the Washington Redskins in the 2003 NFL Draft, while J.R. Suguturaga (Miami Dolphins) and Casey Poppinga (Pittsburgh Steelers) both signed free-agent contracts.

A Roseville, California native, Lynch was an offensive lineman for Sierra Junior College before finishing his collegiate career at Montana in 1997 and 1998. The Grizzlies combined to win 16 games with Lynch on the roster and reached the Divsion I-AA (now FCS) playoffs both seasons.

Lynch holds a bachelor's degree from Montana and a master's degree in secondary education from Utah State. He married the former Emily Schilling in June 2011. The couple has two children – Madison and Will.

NICK MONROE

Defensive Passing Game Coordinator/Safties • Seventh Season

A dynamic recruiter who has recruited and developed NFL talent, Nick Monroe enters his seventh season with the program and first in his elevated role of Defensive Passing Game Coordinator. He joined the staff in 2016 and served as Syracuse's secondary coach for two seasons before narrowing his focus to the Orange's safeties and nickelbacks in 2018 and safeties and rovers in 2020, before taking on his current role this season.

Monroe is known for his elite recruiting ability, bringing in and developing of Andre Cisco (Jacksonville Jaguars), Trill Williams (Miami Dolphins) and Ifeatu Melifonwu (Detroit Lions), the three defensive backs in the Orange's 2021 NFL Draft Class that all went on to ink rookie contracts with the aforementioned teams.

Over the past five seasons, Monroe has co-directed a Syracuse pass defense that has thrived on creating turnovers. The Orange have intercepted 46 passes in 48 games (0.96 per game) since the start of 2018, including a streak of 17 straight games with a pick from Aug. 31, 2018 to Sept. 21, 2019. The streak tied for the third-longest in major college football since 2004.

In his current role of coaching safties and rovers, Monroe took a group that lost a pair of NFL DBs due to injury early in the season in 2020, turning to start three freshmen at the three spots. Ja'Had Carter became a Freshman All-American under his watch, finishing the year with 67 tackles and two interceptions. Rob Hanna also notched north of 50 tackles in his first season of college football.

The group excelled in 2021, as 'Cuse put together its best total defense season in a decade, finishing second in the ACC and 19th nationally after allowing just 330 yards per game.

In 2018, Syracuse's defensive backfield was fifth nationally in interceptions (18). His unit was directly responsible for 11 picks, including an FBS-leading seven by freshman Cisco. The takeaways contributed to a 111-46 advantage in points off turnovers, as the Orange went 10-3 and won the 2018 Camping World Bowl. Cisco was voted the ACC Defensive Rookie of the Year and became the first true freshman in program history to earn All-America honors.

Cisco continued to flourish as a sophomore in 2019. He led the conference for the second year in row with five interceptions and ranked fourth nationally in interceptions per game (0.6). Cisco also tied for third in the ACC in passes defended per game (1.11) on his way to All-ACC Second Team honors. As a team, the Orange ranked fifth nationally in passes defended per game at 5.67 per contest.

In addition to his mentorship of Cisco, Monroe worked with Evan Foster from 2016-19. A three-year starter at strong safety, Foster concluded his career ninth among Syracuse defensive backs with 234 career tackles.

An injury to Cisco ended his 2020 season after two games but Monroe's protoge was selected in the third round of the 2021 NFL Draft by Jacksonville. The Orange accumulated 11 interceptions in 11 contests.

Monroe served as the secondary coach at Bowling Green from 2010-15. He consistently produced units that ranked among the nation's best and helped the Falcons to four straight bowl games and two Mid-American Conference (MAC) titles. Monroe's guidance also helped turn Jude Adjei-Barimah into a contributor in the National Football League. A defensive back for Bowling Green from 2011-14, Adjei-Barimah played 23 games (eight starts) for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers from 2015-16.

Monroe inherited an inexperienced unit at Bowling Green that featured four new starters. In two seasons, he molded them into one of the stingiest defensive backfields in the country. Featuring All-MAC performers BooBoo Gates and Cameron Truss, the 2012 Falcons ranked 13th nationally in passing defense (190.1 ypg) to help lift the team to an 8-5 record and an appearance in the Military Bowl.

The following season, the Bowling Green secondary was even better. The Falcons finished sixth in the FBS against the pass (170.9 ypg) and Gates earned All-MAC First Team honors for the second year in a row. As a team, Bowling Green won its first conference championship since 1992 and played Pittsburgh in the 2013 Little Caesars Pizza Bowl.

In 2014, his first season working for Dino Babers, Monroe successfully oversaw the maturation of safety Brian Sutton and the development of two young cornerbacks. Sutton's production skyrocketed from the previous season as he jumped from 43 to 102 tackles. In addition, rookie cornerbacks Nick Johnson and Clint Stephens combined for nine interceptions. The unit also featured Adjei-Barimah, who recorded 82 tackles. The Falcons won the MAC East title and defeated South Alabama in the inaugural Raycom Media Camellia Bowl.

In 2015, Bowling Green posted a 10-4 record, won the MAC championship for the second time in three seasons, and earned a berth in the GoDaddy Bowl. Monroe's defensive backfield finished eighth in the FBS with 20 interceptions, including a team-high six picks by cornerback Alfonso Mack.

Monroe coached defense for six years at Colgate University. He instructed the outside linebackers from 2004-05 and then shifted to secondary coach in 2006. In 2009, he was promoted to co-defensive coordinator and helped implement a scheme that led the Patriot League and was 29th nationally in total defense (308.2 ypg) that year. Colgate was 9-2 and held seven of its opponents to 20 points or less. Monroe served as the team's recruiting coordinator for five seasons.

In his last three years with the Raiders, Monroe mentored four first-team All-Patriot League selections (Uzi Idah, Wayne Moten, Chris Ekpo, Cody Williams) and one second-team honoree (Moten). In addition, defensive back Demitri Diamond was named the 2009 Patriot League Rookie of the Year.

Colgate won a pair of Patriot League titles (2005, 2008) while Monroe was on staff and made two Division I-AA (now FCS) playoff appearances.

Monroe was the secondary coach in 2002 and 2003 at Allegheny College. He helped the Gators capture the 2003 North Coast Athletic Conference (NCAC) championship and earn a berth in the NCAA Division III playoffs.

Monroe was a four-year letterwinner at cornerback for St. Cloud State University in Minnesota. He earned his undergraduate degree in marketing from the school in 2001.

Nick and his wife, Nicole, have a son, Wyatt.

MIKE SCHMIDT

Offensive Line/Run Game Coordinator • Second Season

Syracuse head football coach Dino Babers announced the addition of Mike Schmidt as 'Cuse's offensive line coach on Feb. 24, 2021 and he made an immediate impact in the Orange's run game.

In his first season at 'Cuse, his unit paved the way for the fifth-most productive rushing season in program history, rushing for 2,562 yards. They also paved the way for All-American running back Sean Tucker, who was a semifinalist for both the Doak Walker and Maxwell Awards. Tucker posted the fourth-most rushing yards per game in the country (124.7) and eclipsed Joe Morris' 42-year old rushing record to finish with 1,496 yards. He also finished third nationally in yards from scrimmage (1,751) and scored 14 total touchdowns. Orange quarterback Garrett Shrader also tallied the second-most rushing yards (781) and rushing touchdowns (14) by a 'Cuse QB ever.

Left tackle Matthew Bergeron and center Airon Servais picked up All-ACC accolades, but Schmidt's unit needed depth as it was hampered by injury last season. Eight different players started at least one game and the team used seven different offensive line combinations to make up for player absences due to injury and illness - a mark that was tied for fourth in the nation.

Schmidt coached offensive line for over a decade at San Diego State, where he mentored a unit that has paved the way for one of the nation's top rushing attacks.

Schmidt's coaching career at San Diego State began 12 years ago, after he graduated from the University. After taking over as a full-time member of the staff in 2012, San Diego State ranked 15th nationally in yards per carry (5.0), 15th in rushing yards per game (216.9) and tied for 21st nationally in touchdowns (201) over that span.

In his nine seasons as the team's offensive line coach, 15 different offensive linemen earned All-Mountain West accolades, including six first-team honorees in the past six seasons. Schmidt has also mentored multiple NFL Draft selections, including Nico Siragusa (2017 - Baltimore Ravens), Terry Poole (2015 - Seattle Seahawks) and Keith Ismael (2020 - Washington Football Team)

In 2017, Schmidt's line paved the way for All-American running back Rashaad Penny to lead the nation in rushing. The year prior, Donnell Pumphrey became the NCAA's all-time leading rusher with 6,405 yards and the Aztec offense set program records in rushing yards (3,680), rushing touchdowns (34), yards per carry (5.8) and points (493). Under Schmidt's tutelage that season, Tyler Roemer earned Freshman All-America honors.

The rushing records broke those that were set in 2012, which was Schmidt's first year coaching the SDSU offensive line. Prior to him taking over the position, he worked with the program as an offensive graduate assistant from 2010-11. In that time, the Aztecs allowed the fifth (0.69/2010) and seventh (0.85/2011) fewest sacks per game in the nation.

Schmidt joined the coaching ranks after a successful playing career at San Diego State from 2005-08 that saw him transition from a walk-on defensive lineman to a scholarship offensive lineman and team captain in his senior season.

The Aztecs went to 10-straight bowls from 2010-2019 and posted a 10-win season in four of the past-six years.

CHIP WEST

Cornerbacks • Third Season

Chip West was hired as Syracuse's cornerbacks coach in February 2020 to coach corners and in his two seasons coaching the position, every starter that has played under West has earned All-ACC honors. He's mentored a pair of Freshmen All-Americans and one NFL Draft selection in his first two seasons with the program.

An award-winning recruiter with more than 20 years of college coaching experience, West came to Central New York after most recently serving as the cornerbacks coach at Marshall in 2019.

West went right to work when he joined the Orange staff. He was instrumental in developing one of the nation's top cornerback tandoms in freshman Garrett Williams and redshirt junior Ifeatu Melifonwu. The duo ranked first and fifth, respectively in passes defended among Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC) performers. Williams earned freshman All-American recognition and was honorable mention All-ACC while Melifonwu picked up second team All-ACC from the Associated Press. Melifonwu was a third-round selection in the 2021 NFL Draft by the Detroit Lions.

His 2021 tandem of Williams and Duce Chestnut ranked second and third in the ACC in passes defended, respectfully, with the rookie Chestnut finishing as runner up for the ACC Defensive Rookie of the Year award and garnering Third Team All-ACC honors. Williams was an honorable mention selection for the second-straight season. As a unit, the defense excelled in 2021, putting together its best total defense season in a decade, finishing second in the ACC and 19th nationally after allowing just 330 yards per game.

In West's one season at Marshall, the squad posted an 8-5 record and earned a berth in the Gasparilla Bowl. He mentored 2019 All-Conference USA First Team honoree Chris Jackson, who finished his career as Marshall's all-time leader in pass breakups, and was selected by the Tennessee Titans in the 2020 NFL Draft.

Prior to joining the Thundering Herd, West was the co-defensive coordinator and cornerbacks coach at Charlotte in 2018 and held the same positions at Howard University in 2017. At Charlotte, West helped run a 49ers unit that ranked second nationally in first downs allowed (197), ninth in rushing defense (105.7 ypg) and 22nd in total defense (337.3 ypg).

From 2010-15, West worked as the cornerbacks coach at Virginia.He guided the careers of multiple Cavaliers who went on to the NFL and made his mark on the recruiting trail. In February 2014, Rivals.com and Scout.com each named West its ACC Recruiter of the Year. Three years prior, West was tabbed the 2011 ACC Recruiter of the Year by 247Sports.com and he was one eight finalists for the organization's national recruiter of the year award. Named Virginia's recruiting coordinator after the 2012 season, West spearheaded an effort that landed the Cavaliers numerous highly-rated prospects during his six seasons in Charlottesville, including two of the nation's top-10 recruits. Virginia signed three top-30 classes with West on staff.

As effective as West was on the recruiting circuit, he was equally as successful as a position coach for the Cavaliers. West mentored two-time All-ACC First Team selection Chase Minnifield, who played in the NFL with the Washington Redskins. He also coached New York Jets cornerback Maurice Canaday and Ras-I Dowling, who was a second-round pick in the 2011 NFL Draft by the New England Patriots. The Virginia secondary also featured Rodney McLeod, who won a Super Bowl with the Philadelphia Eagles.

A Hampton, Virginia native, West was the assistant head coach, defensive backs coach and recruiting coordinator at Old Dominion for three seasons (2007-09) before joining the Virginia staff. In 2009, ODU went 9-2 in its first season as an FCS program.

Before his stop at Old Dominion, West coached at James Madison from 2004-2006. He oversaw the JMU defensive backs, most notably developing free safety Tony LeZotte, a 2005 All-American and the Atlantic 10 Conference Defensive Player of the Year. The Dukes won the Division I-AA (now FCS) national championship in 2004 – West's first season on staff – and finished 13-2. In 2006, JMU returned to the FCS playoffs, losing in the first round at Youngstown State.

In 2003, West served as the defensive backs coach at Fordham when the Rams were 9-3. His first full-time coaching assignment was as wide receiver coach at Colgate for four years (1999-2002). The Raiders shared the 2002 Patriot League title, posting a 9-3 overall record and a 6-1 league mark. Colgate led the Patriot League that season in total offense, averaging 392.5 yards per game, including 215 yards a game passing. In 1999, Colgate won the Patriot League title and reached the Division I-AA playoffs.

West began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at West Virginia from 1997-98. He worked with the defense and was part of the staff that helped the Mountaineers earn invitations to the Carquest and Insight.com bowls.

A standout player at Kecoughtan High School (Va.), West earned All-CIAA honors as a wide receiver at Livingstone College. He received his bachelor's degree in computer information systems from Livingstone in 1993 and earned a master's degree in physical education from West Virginia in 1999.

West and his wife, Patrice, are the parents of five children – Zoe, David, Gwen, Justin and Jada.

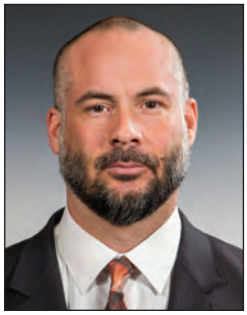
SEAN EDINGER



Assistant AD/Athletic Performance • Seventh Season

Sean Edinger is in his seventh year as the football program's Assistant Athletics Director for Athletic Performance. Appointed to the position in January 2016, Edinger is responsible for designing training programs to increase the conditioning, speed, strength and agility of Syracuse's football student-athletes.

Edinger has trained a host of collegiate standouts who have gone on to play professional football. Since Edinger got to Syracuse, 26 Orange players have signed NFL contracts, including draft picks Zaire Franklin, Chris Slayton, Alton Robinson, Sterling Hofrichter, Andre Cisco and Ifeatu Melifonwu

Prior to joining the Orange, Edinger served as the director of strength and conditioning at Bowling Green for two seasons, overseeing the strength and conditioning programs for BGSU's 18 sports. Edinger previously held a similar position at Eastern Illinois from June 2012 until 2014 when he accompanied Dino Babers to Bowling Green.

Before his stint at Eastern Illinois, Edinger was the head strength coach at Central Missouri. Edinger was directly responsible for all aspects of the Mules' strength and conditioning program. He also previously worked as the head strength coach for football and volleyball at Haskell Indian Nations University in Lawrence, Kansas in 2008.

A graduate assistant at Missouri for two seasons, Edinger worked with the Tiger volleyball and tennis teams. He also assisted with the football strength and conditioning program, helping players prepare for pro days and professional combines.

At Central Missouri, Edinger worked with quarterback Eric Czerniewski, who won the 2010 Harlon Hill Trophy as the top player in Division II football. Edinger's stint at Eastern Illinois included coaching current San Francisco 49ers quarterback Jimmy Garoppolo and record-setting receiver Erik Lora. NFL receivers Gehrig Dieter, Roger Lewis, linebacker Gabe Martin and 2015 Mid-American Conference Player of the Year Matt Johnson are just of few of Edinger's successful Bowling Green protégés.

Edinger is a 2006 graduate of the University of Kansas. He earned his master's degree from Missouri in 2008. Edinger is SCCC certified through the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association (CSCCa) and holds a USA Weightlifting Level 1 Performance certification. A member of the U.S. National Karate Team for five years, Edinger has more than 30 years of experience in the martial arts.

Sean Edinger and Dino Babers have worked together since 2012 when Babers was hired as the head coach at Eastern Illinois.

KHALIL AHMAD

Director of High School Relations

Khalil Ahmad is in his first season at Syracuse as the Director of High School Relations. Ahmed makes his way to the Orange after serving a year at Rutgers in player development for the Scarlet Knights. A native of Montclair, New Jersey, Ahmad previously served the last two years as assistant head coach/offensive and recruiting coordinator at Paterson Eastside High School in helping turn the program around on the way to back-to-back winning seasons. That included a postseason berth in 2019 and being in position in 2020.

Ahmad began his career immediately after college as offensive coordinator/recruiting coordinator at Passaic High School. The team finished with its first .500 season in 20 years. Next, Ahmad worked as secondary coach, strength and conditioning and recruiting coordinator at Northern Valley at Demarest, earning a spot in the playoffs.

Ahmad graduated from Delaware State University with a degree in political science. He attended Montclair High School and Paterson Eastside.

REGINALD ARCHER

Assistant Athletic Trainer

Reginald Archer joined the Syracuse football program in the summer of 2022

He comes to the Orange after an 11-month stint as the head athletic trainer of Edgewood High School in Ellettsville, Indiana.

Archer previously was a graduate assistant athletic trainer at Indiana for the 2021 Hoosiers' baseball season. While there, he earned his master's degree in kinesiology, with a concentration in athletic training. He holds a bachelor's degree from Stony Brook University in athletic training.

SEAN AVANT

Academic Coordinator

Sean Avant, a former wide receiver at Syracuse, returned to his alma mater in Oct. 2021 to serve as an academic coordinator with the football program.

He is currently in his second season of his current role, which is to oversee the the initial and continuing eligibility of football student-athletes. As a student-athlete, Avant was a four-time letterwinner with the Orange football program, where he appeared in 26 games and caught 11 passes from 2014-17.

After graduating from 'Cuse, Avant was an academic support intern with the Miami football program for 18 months. He then spent the 2019-20 academic year at Toledo.

He holds a bachelor's degree in communication and rhetorical studies with a minor in child and family studies from Syracuse, which he earned in 2016, and master's degree from SU in 2017 in instructional design, development and evaluation.

AUSTIN BEEHNER

Director of Video Operations

Austin Beehner returned to the Syracuse football staff as the director of video operations in March 2013. He previously served as a video operations intern for the Orange during the spring of 2012, while completing his undergraduate degree in sport management at SUNY Cortland.

As Syracuse's director of video operations, Beehner is responsible for managing the internal video network, preparing game and practice film for coaches and student-athletes, supervising interns, and managing a staff of student camera operators. He also plays a large role in Syracuse's creative and social media efforts, creating much of the video content fans see on Syracuse's social media platforms and recruits see on official visits.

Prior to rejoining the Orange, Beehner was the football video operations assistant at Ohio State from June 2012 through the end of the football season. He recorded, imported and edited game and practice film, managed the department's student assistants, and provided technical support for coaches and student-athletes. He also helped produce opponent breakdowns and self-scouting films for the Buckeyes.

In his first stint at Syracuse, Beehner was responsible for gathering and editing game and practice film. He also produced individual player highlight films and the 2012 senior banquet video.

KATIE BERARDI

Administrative Assistant for Dino Babers

Katie Berardi enters her 16th season with the Syracuse University football program. Her role as the administrative assistant to head coach Dino Babers began in August 2016. She is the primary liaison between Babers and Syracuse University staff, faculty, administration, the business community and the general public.

Berardi is responsible for all items related to the Head Coach's office. She is in charge of handling the daily schedule, yearly calendar, general correspondence and travel for the head coach. Berardi works closely with the Director of Operations, Director of Recruiting, Director of Player Personnel, Director of High School Relations, the assistant coaches and support staff to ensure a cohesive office is in place. She also serves as the assistant director for the Dino Babers Summer Football Camp series.

Prior to her current appointment, Berardi worked as the football program's office coordinator from 2007-16. She managed the daily operations of the Iocolano-Petty Football Complex and provided administrative support to assistant coaches, the director of player development, the assistant athletics director for athletic performance and the director of football operations. Berardi also served as a liaison with NFL scouting departments and the NCAA Eligibility Clearinghouse.

Berardi is a Syracuse University alumna. She received her bachelor's degree 2006.

Katie and her husband, John, reside in Jamesville with their son, Giovanni.

SUPPORT STAFF

McKENZIE BOSTIC

On-Campus Recruiting Coordinator

McKenzie Bostic joined the Syracuse football recruiting staff in the spring of 2022 as the program's Director of On-Campus Recruiting.

Bostic oversees all on-campus recruiting activities, including coordination of official and unofficial visits with prospective student-athletes and recruiting events.

Bostic joins the Orange after a two-year stint as the Player Care Coordinator for the Columbus Crew of Major League Soccer. In that role, she handled player relocation for signees, oversaw the wife/family program for players, assisted in the planning and execution of player appearances and helped manage the Crew SC Academy's billet program.

Prior to that, she spent one season with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers as an events and entertainment intern where she was the event lead for various special events.

A 2019 graduate of The Ohio State University, Bostic spent two years with the Buckeyes football program as a recruiting and administrative assistant. While there, she assisted the recruiting staff in bringing some of the nation's top-ranked recruiting classes to Columbus. In her first season working with the recruiting office, Ohio State landed the nation's No. 2 recruiting class according to 247Sports' composite rankings.

JOSH BRINGUEL

Graduate Assistant (Defense)

After a four-year playing career and a season as a student-assistant coach at San Diego State University, Josh Bringuel was added as a Defensive Graduate Assistant by head coach Dino Babers prior to the 2021 season.

In 2021, Syracuse held opponents to 330 yards per game, which ranked 19th nationally and second in the ACC. Orange stars Mikel Jones (LB) and Cody Roscoe (DE) earned First Team All-ACC honors, while Garrett Williams, Duce Chestnut and Josh Black were also honored by the league. Syracuse made a habit of getting after the quarterback, ranking third in the ACC in sacks (3.1) and 16th in the FBS.

Bringuel, who worked at both defensive line and linebacker with the Aztecs as a player, will be assisting with Syracuse's linebackers. While at SDSU, he coached First Team All-Mountain West linebacker Caden McDonald. He was part of the program that won the 2016 Mountain West Championship and Las Vegas Bowl and the 2019 New Mexico Bowl Champions.

A San Jose, California native, Bringuel saw time on special teams in his playing career. He earned a bachelor's degree in psychology and earned a graduate certificate in counseling at SDSU.

TYLER CADY

Assistant Director/Athletic Communications

Tyler Cady joined the athletic communications staff in July, 2014 and is the media relations contact for football and cross country/track and field programs while also assisting in the implementation and execution of the department's digital and social media strategy and content creation.

In addition to his current sports, Cady has previously overseen men's lacrosse for seven years (2016-22), field hockey (2015-16), ice hockey (2014-15) and tennis (2014-15) in earlier roles at SU.

Prior to his appointment at Syracuse, Cady worked as a graduate assistant at Canisius College, while earning his master's degree. At Canisius, Cady was responsible for the communications efforts for women's lacrosse, women's soccer, cross country, track and field, swimming and diving, synchronized swimming and rowing, while assisting with men's and women's basketball, ice hockey and men's lacrosse.

Before graduating from Canisius in 2014, Cady earned his bachelor's degree from the University at Buffalo in 2012.

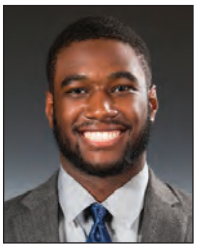
In his time at Syracuse, Cady has been a key factor in the growth of the social media accounts at SU. In addition to running the Orange's football social media platforms, Syracuse's men's lacrosse account is consistently among the top men's lacrosse accounts nationally in terms of engagement, it also has been built into the most followed college lacrosse team in the nation. While in charge of the ice hockey, field hockey and cross country twitter accounts, each has experienced some of the largest growth in followers nationally in its respective sports during that time. He also assists with other department social media accounts.

NICK COHEN

Assistant Director of Video and Technology

Nick Cohen joined the Syracuse football program as the Assistant Director of Video and Technology in August of 2021.

In his role, Cohen assists in managing the internal video network, preparing game and practice film for coaches and student-athletes, supervising interns, and managing a staff of student camera operators.



KENDALL COLEMAN

Graduate Assistant (Offense/Special Teams)

A four-year starter at Syracuse before a stint as a free agent with the Indianapolis Colts, Orange standout Kendall Coleman returned to Syracuse to join Dino Babers' coaching staff prior to the 2021 season.

Coleman, who starred on the Syracuse defensive line from 2016-19, assists with the offensive line and special teams units as a graduate assistant.

In his first season with the program, the offensive line managed to pave the way for the most prolific rushing attack in program history. Despite having to start eight different offensive line combinations due to injury, running back Sean Tucker shattered a 40-year-old rushing record and earned All-America honors behind the unit.

A team captain in 2019 and recipient of the Bill Horr Award as the team's most valuable player, Coleman started 43 games in his collegiate career, logging 137 tackles, 26.5 tackles for loss and 15.5 sacks. After attending the 2020 NFL Scouting Combine, he signed with the Colts.

Coleman was a large part of Syracuse's 10-win season in 2018 as a junior. An All-ECAC First Team honoree, he was second in the ACC with 10.0 sacks for the season and was eighth nationally with 0.83 sacks per game. He set the Camping World Bowl record and tied Syracuse's bowl record with 3.0 sacks against West Virginia.

He earned his degree from Syracuse in human development and family science.

KOY DETMER JR.

Graduate Assistant (Offense)

Koy Detmer Jr. joined the Syracuse coaching staff in February, 2022 as an offensive graduate assistant.

Detmer comes to 'Cuse after spending the past two seasons at Texas A&M Kingsville, where he coached both wide receivers (2021) and running backs (2020).

Detmer – who played for the Javelina prior to his two years on staff – passed for 3,831 yards over two seasons, completing 59-percent of his passes, and connecting for 32 touchdowns over the 2018 and 2019 campaigns. He was an All-Lone Star Conference selection after the 2018 season.

Detmer owns a handful of records in program history for the Javelinas as he threw for 450 yards on a 37-for-65 clip in a 45-33 loss to No. 4 Tarleton on October 26, 2019. It was only the second time a Javelina quarterback threw for at least 450 yards as he tied the program record for pass attempts, broke the record for pass completions and fell seven yards shy of the single-game record for passing yards.

He earned his bachelor's degree from Texas A&M Kingsville in 2020 after previously spending two seasons at BYU. He is the son of former NFL player Koy Detmer.

KYLE FETTERLY

Head Equipment Manager

Kyle Fetterly has been the head equipment manager at Syracuse University since 1983. He is responsible for all athletics equipment purchasing, reconditioning, maintenance and inventory control.

Fetterly previously worked as the Orange's assistant equipment manager and as a student equipment manager. He is certified by the Athletic Equipment Managers Association (AEMA) and has been involved with the organization since entering the field. He's served on various boards, including Nike, Schutt, Bike, Brine and Champion in an effort to enhance the protective equipment for all sports. He is a frequent speaker at national and regional AEMA workshops. Fetterly has staffed 15 bowl games for the football team, including the 2018 Camping World Bowl.

A longtime member of the Syracuse men's lacrosse support staff, Fetterly is now the color analyst on the Syracuse Sports Network's radio broadcasts with Learfield - a role he has held for more than 15 years.

Fetterly, who lives in Liverpool, earned his bachelor's degree in retail management from Syracuse in May 2009.

DAVID GETTIS

Quality Control (Offense)

Former NFL receiver David Gettis is in his fifth year as a quality control coach for the Orange. Gettis played two seasons for the Carolina Panthers and also spent time with the Washington Redskins, Tampa Bay Buccaneers and the Canadian Football League's Winnipeg Blue Bombers during his pro career. '

A collegiate standout at Baylor from 2006-09, Gettis played for Syracuse head coach Dino Babers for two seasons when Babers was Baylor's wide receivers coach.

Gettis joined the Orange program in 2018 and assisting in coaching the Orange's most prolific scoring season in program history.

Gettis finished his college career ranked seventh at Baylor in career receiving yards (1,555), tied for eighth all-time in receptions (116) and eighth in kick return average (22.7).

A 2009 All-Big 12 Honorable Mention choice, Gettis was selected by the Carolina Panthers in the sixth round of the 2010 NFL Draft. He played a combined 17 games for the Panthers from 2010-12. As a rookie in 2010, he tallied 37 receptions for 508 yards and a team-high three touchdown catches. He also returned eight kickoffs for 145 yards.

In 2015, Gettis returned to Baylor to complete his undergraduate degree and spent the 2015 football season as a student coach for the Bears. He worked as a graduate assistant on Coach Jim Grobe's Baylor staff the following year.

Gettis received his first full-time coaching job in 2017, serving as the wide receivers coach for the University of Texas Permian Basin.

A native of Los Angeles, California, Gettis holds a bachelor's degree in health, kinesiology and leisure studies from Baylor.

SUPPORT STAFF

GINO GIGLIOTTI

Director of Recruiting

Gino Gigliotti was promoted to Director of Recruiting in March of 2022. He joined the Orange recruiting staff in 2019 and was promoted to recruiting quality control assistant in March 2020, before assuming his current role this season.

Gigliotti leads in the program's initiatives to attract the best possible student-athletes to Syracuse University.

Gigliotti's previous experience includes a two-year stint at Coastal Carolina. He was hired as a recruiting and video technology intern for Chanticleers in 2017 and spent the 2018 season as a recruiting analyst. Gigliotti's duties included organizing recruiting schedules for coaches, watching and evaluating game film, assisting with official visits and helping maintain Coastal Carolina's recruiting board.

In addition to his work with the Chanticleers, Gigliotti was a manager and defensive quality control coach for SUNY Cortland in 2016. He analyzed practice and game film, signaled in defensive plays from the sideline during games, and led the film distribution to Red Dragon players and coaches.

A Cortland graduate, Gigliotti holds a bachelor's degree in sport management.

TRAVIS GREENE

Offensive Analyst

The all-time leading rusher at Bowling Green, Travis Greene is in his fifth season on the Syracuse staff. He was named an offensive analyst in the spring of 2021 after previously serving in graduate assistant and quality control positions.

Greene joined the Orange program in 2018 and assisting in coaching the Orange's most prolific scoring season in program history. He also helped the staff mentor Sean Tucker to the most prolific rushing season in program history in 2021. Under their guidance, Tucker broke a 40-year-old rushing record and earned All-America accolades.

As a player, Greene was a running back for the Falcons for three seasons. He rushed for a school-record 3,852 yards, including 1,299 yards and 15 touchdowns as a senior captain in 2015 to help BGSU capture the Mid-American Conference (MAC) title in their second year under Dino Babers. Greene previously set the Bowling Green single-season rushing record with 1,594 yards in 2013.

A two-time All-MAC selection, Greene helped the Falcons to two conference titles, three MAC championship game appearances, and a victory in the 2014 Raycom Media Camellia Bowl. He was voted MVP of the 2015 league championship game after running for a career-high 183 yards and two touchdowns versus Northern Illinois.

Greene was briefly a member of the Canadian Football League's Ottawa Redblacks following his collegiate career.

Greene received his bachelor's degree in liberal arts from Bowling Green in 2015. He earned a master's degree in instructional design, development and evaluation at Syracuse in 2020.

Greene's brother, Trent, was previously a defensive graduate assistant for the Orange from 2017-19.

BRANDON HALL

Head Athletic Trainer for Football

A graduate assistant athletic trainer for the Orange from 2013-15, Brandon Hall rejoined the Syracuse Sports Medicine Department in October 2016 as an assistant athletic trainer for football, before being promoted to the Head Athletic Trainer position in February of 2022.

Hall's first full-time athletic training position after earning his master's degree in exercise science from Syracuse was at the College of William & Mary in 2015-16. He worked with a variety of sports for the Tribe, including baseball, track & field and cross country.

A Massachusetts native and University of New Hampshire graduate with a bachelor's degree in athletic training, Hall holds certifications in several manual therapy and rehabilitative interventions, including the Graston Technique and Blood Flow Restriction Therapy (BFRT). He is also a certified Corrective Exercise Specialist (CES).

At New Hampshire, Hall was a four-year member of the UNH men's rowing team that competed in the ECAC and at multiple national regattas. Hall has volunteered his athletic training services at the Boston Marathon for the last six years. He is an active member of the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA), College Athletic Trainers Society and New York State Athletic Trainers Association.

DEBBIE HILLS

Office Coordinator

Debbie Hills joined the football administrative staff as office coordinator in September 2019. As the program's first public contact, she manages the daily operations of the Iocolano-Petty Football Complex and provides administrative support to the assistant coaches and the director of player personnel.

Prior to her current appointment, Hills held positions within Syracuse University at the Office of Alumni Relations, Kappa Alpha Theta Sorority, the football office and the Martin J. Whitman School of Management.

Hills earned her bachelor's degree in elementary education and French in 1994 from SUNY Potsdam. She also holds a master's degree in education from the school.

Debbie and her husband, Mark, reside in Manlius with their four children – Sarah, Scott, Lauren and Brian.

Holland is a 2012 graduate of Tennessee with a degree in sports management and business administration. He comes to 'Cuse after spending the 2021 season with the Ohio State football program that went on to win the 2022 Rose Bowl. While at Ohio State, Holland also obtained his Master's degree in sport coaching. He also has previous stints with football and Olympic programs at Alabama, South Carolina, and Tennessee. While at Alabama, he also became the Assistant Strength Coach with the women's basketball program under Kristy Curry. He has also spent time in the private sector with D1 Sports Training as a speed and strength coach.

Holland is a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS) through the National Strength and Conditioning Association, a Certified Sport Performance Coach with United States of America Weightlifting (USAW), a Certified Speed and Agility Coach (CSAC) through Lee Taft, and is certified through the Collegiate Strength & Conditioning Coaches Association (CSCCa).

SHAQUILLE LEE

Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach

Shaquille Lee is entering his second season as an Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach with the Syracuse football program.

Lee joins the Orange after most recently working with the Notre Dame strength and conditioning staff in the spring of 2021.

Prior to that, Lee worked at Missouri Southern as the Assistant Director of Strength and Conditioning, with prior GA and internship experiences at Midwestern State, Kentucky, Oregon and his alma mater, Indiana State.

Lee, originally from Gary, Indiana, played one season of football at St. Joseph's College in Rensselaer, Indiana for the 2012 season, before transferring to Indiana State in 2013. While at Indiana State, he earned a bachelor's degree in exercise science, with a minor in strength and conditioning. He later completed a master's program with a concentration in coaching in 2019 at the University.

Lee is USAW Level One certified.

JASON LESLIE

Academic Coordinator

Jason Leslie has been a member of the Syracuse Athletics' Student-Athlete Academic Development team since August of 2017. He is currently in his second season of his current role, which is to oversee the the initial and continuing eligibility of football and women's lacrosse student-athletes.

Leslie began working as an Academic Support Assistant in 2017, before being promoted to a Academic Coordinator for the 2018-19 academic year. In addition to his current sports, Leslie has also worked with both the men's and women's rowing programs at SU.

Prior to Syracuse, Leslie worked in development with the West Virginia University Alumni Association. He also holds a master's degree in sports management from WVU.

Leslie graduated with a bachelor's degree in business administration with a minor in sports communication from the University of Detroit Mercy. While with the Titans, he was a four-year starter on the men's soccer team and was a two-time captain.

DEON MADDOX

Director of Player Development/Alumni Relations

Former Syracuse wideout Deon Maddox is returned to his alma mater to serve as the Orange's Director of High School Relations in 2021, before being promoted to Director of Player Development/Alumni Relations in March of 2022.

Maddox '95 M'00 came to the Orange with experience as a high school athletic director, administrator, or coach at numerous schools in his home state of Florida and has collegiate coaching experience as well, following a stint at Eastern Michigan.

A four-year letterman at Syracuse, Maddox caught 48 passes for 672 yards and three touchdowns. The Orange went 9-3 in each of his last two seasons at SU, with victories in the Gator Bowl and Liberty Bowl in those seasons. Maddox was also a BIG EAST Conference All-Academic honoree and the recipient of the 1996 Liberty Bowl Scholar Athlete Award .

Following a successful career at 'Cuse, Maddox spent the 1997 season with the Detroit Lions and was drafted by NFL Europe.

Maddox returned to the Tampa area where he served as the offensive coordinator for Middleton High School from 2002-06. He then spent four years as an assistant principal at Armwood High School in Tampa.

Maddox's previous collegiate experience came at Eastern Michigan where he spent two seasons as the wide receivers coach for the Eagles, who saw a four-win improvement in his second season in 2011.

Maddox most recently served as a student success coach in the Hillsborough County Public School System.

SUPPORT STAFF

KEVIN McGARRY

Analyst (Defense)

Kevin McGarry enters his third season as a defensive analyst in 2022.

In 2021, Syracuse held opponents to 330 yards per game, which ranked 19th nationally and second in the ACC. Orange stars Mikel Jones (LB) and Cody Roscoe (DE) earned First Team All-ACC honors, while Garrett Williams, Duce Chestnut and Josh Black were also honored by the league. Syracuse made a habit of getting after the quarterback, ranking third in the ACC in sacks (3.1) and 16th in the FBS. In his first season at SU, a trio of Orange freshman defenders earned Freshman All-America honors from various publications and the defensive unit as a whole was near the top of the nation in takeaways.

McGarry joined the Orange staff following a 11-year stint at San Diego State, where he held various roles on Rocky Long's staff. He coached linebackers, defensive line and special teams, was the director of player personnel and director of on campus recruiting in his roles through the years with the Aztecs.

McGarry has head coaching experience under his belt, serving as the head coach at the University of San Diego for eight seasons. He has a 39-37 record as a head coach, with five .500-or-better seasons and saw his squads earn a national ranking on three occasions. He took over as the head coach there after a 15-year tenure as the Toreros' defensive coordinator and a member of the staff for 26 seasons and was named the conference coach of the year in 2002.

He has a bachelor's degree in English/diversified liberal arts and a master's in educational administration from the University of San Diego. He and his wife Mary Ann have four sons, Pat, Mike, Timbo and Matt.

SUSIE MEHRINGER

Assistant Director/Communications

Susie Mehringer joined the Athletic Communications staff in August 1994. She has worked with numerous teams in her tenure, but enters her second in assisting with the Orange football program in 2022. She also works with the Orange's nationally ranked women's lacrosse program.

From 1994 through 1999, Mehringer handled the day-to-day public and media relations for seven Olympic sports, including travelling with and working closely with the women's basketball program. She wrote and edited media guides, weekly releases, newsletters and game programs. Syracuse's 1995-96 and 1996-97 women's tennis media guide, which she wrote and edited, were voted "Best in the District" by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA).

Mehringer has served as the media coordinator for The BIGEAST Conference Indoor Track & Field Championships, the ECAC Indoor Track & Field Championships,the Eastern Intercollegiate Gymnastics League (EIGL) Championships, the Eastern Intercollegiate Wrestling Association and the NCAA East Regional Women's Tennis Championships. She was the assistant media coordinator for the 2000, 2002 and 2005 NCAA Men's Basketball East Regional Championships held in the Carrier Dome.

Prior to coming to Syracuse, Mehringer served as an assistant in the sports information office at the University of Evansville. She was the primary contact for baseball, women's basketball, soccer and volleyball. She wrote and edited media guides and game programs and assisted with the other non-revenue sports.

A 1992 graduate of Ball State with degrees in public relations and sport administration and a minor in business, Mehringer worked for one year in the Cardinals sports information office. She also was a communications intern for the Amateur Athletic Union. She resides in Syracuse.

ALISON MITCHELL

Assistant Athletic Trainer

Alison Mitchell enters her third season with the Syracuse football program as an athletic trainer. She also oversees the resident athletic trainer who works with the 'Cuse tennis team.

Prior to joining the Orange, Mitchell served as an athletic training intern for the University of Michigan football program during the 2019-20 academic year. In addition to her stint with the Wolverines, Mitchell's previous experience includes a 2019 summer athletic training internship with the Carolina Panthers and two years as a graduate assistant athletic trainer for the University of South Carolina.

At South Carolina, Mitchell worked with the Gamecocks' football team in the summer of 2018. She also provided athletic training services to Columbia's Heathwood Hall Episcopal School and South Carolina State University during that time. Mitchell was the primary athletic trainer for SCSU's volleyball, track & field and softball teams, while assisting with other sports as necessary.

Mitchell is a member of several professional athletic training organizations, including the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA). Her certifications include Graston Module I, Mulligan Concept Manual Therapy for the Lower Body and Spine, and Mental Health First Aid.

The recipient of multiple professional and postgraduate scholarships, Mitchell earned her bachelor's degree in athletic training in 2017 from Salisbury University, where she worked with five teams as an undergraduate athletic trainer. During her final semester at Salisbury, Mitchell completed a five-month internship with the Navy men's lacrosse program. She graduated from South Carolina in 2019 with a master's degree in advanced athletic training.

JACK POTENZA

Graduate Assistant (Defense)

Syracuse alum Jack Potenza is in his third season as a defensive graduate assistant.

In 2021, Syracuse held opponents to 330 yards per game, which ranked 19th nationally and second in the ACC. Orange stars Mikel Jones (LB) and Cody Roscoe (DE) earned First Team All-ACC honors, while Garrett Williams, Duce Chestnut and Josh Black were also honored by the league. Syracuse made a habit of getting after the quarterback, ranking third in the ACC in sacks (3.1) and 16th in the FBS.

A native of Fairfield, Connecticut, Potenza was a two-sport athlete in football (quarterback) and lacrosse (midfielder) at St. Lawrence University before transferring to Syracuse.

Potenza previously served as a recruiting office assistant and student coach for the Orange as an undergraduate. Upon arriving in Central New York, Potenza spent the 2018 season assisting Director of Recruiting Operations Kramer Cook with prospect summaries and analysis. In 2019, he was assigned to defensive line coach Vinson Reynolds and assisted in the planning of defensive individual and scout team practice periods. He also created film breakdowns and tendency reports of opposing offensive linemen for the Orange front four.

In addition to his work at Syracuse, Potenza also has experience at the professional level. In 2018 and 2019, he spent the summer as a Washington Redskins training camp intern.

Potenza holds a bachelor's degree in economics from Syracuse. He is enrolled in the instructional design, development and evaluation graduate program.

TYLER RADEMACHER

Assistant Equipment Manager/Football

Tyler Rademacher enters his fifth season with the Syracuse football program in 2022 after being elevated to assistant equipment manager in July.

He is one-of-two people whose primary role is to oversee the outfitting, upkeep and maintenance of equipment and apparel for the Orange football team both at home and on the road.

Rademacher joined Syracuse prior to the 2018 season. He previously had stops with the Atlanta Falcons and Arizona Cardinals. A 2016 graduate of Central Michigan, Rademacher was a student manager for the Chippewas football program while earning a bachelor's degree in sport management, with a minor in marketing.

AJ SCHAUFLER

Associate AD/Compliance

AJ Schaufler joined Syracuse in May of 2022 as the Associate Athletics Director for Compliance.

Schaufler is responsible for the day-to-day compliance operations of the football program, in addition to the other teams he works with, to ensure adherence to NCAA, Atlantic Coast Conference and University rules and regulations.

Before joining the Orange, Schaufler spent nearly five years at Monmouth University, serving as both an Associate and Assistant Athletics Director in that time. He also has stops at Stony Brook, Fresno State, Columbia and Coppin State Universities in his athletics career.

A 2010 graduate of Mount St. Mary's University with a bachelor's degree in Sports Management, Schaufler also played lacrosse for the Mountaineers. He then went on to earn his Juris Doctor in 2013 from the University of Baltimore School of Law.

JIM SCHLENSKER

Head Equipment Manager for Football

Jim Schlensker joined the Syracuse equipment staff in 1994 and was promoted to head equipment manager for football in January 2011.

His primary responsibilities include gameday preparation of equipment and locker room facilities for both home and away contests, as well as office duties. Schlensker is responsible for football equipment purchasing and reconditioning, maintenance and inventory control.

He is one-of-two people that undertake Syracuse's football equipment and apparel responsibilities on a daily basis for a group well over 150 people between players, coaches and staff. He also oversees Syracuse's football managers.

He has staffed 10 bowl games for the Orange, including the 2018 Camping World Bowl.

Schlensker came to Syracuse from Northwestern. The Fort Wayne, Indiana native is a 1990 graduate of St. Joseph's College. He is certified by the Athletic Equipment Managers Association (AEMA).

SEAN TETER

Assistant Strength & Conditioning Coach

Sean Teter was named an assistant strength and conditioning coach for football in February 2018. He came to Syracuse after serving as the head strength and conditioning coordinator at Central Missouri for six years.

Since his arrival in Central New York, he has helped implement the strength and conditioning program that has seen six Orange players drafted and more than a dozen sign NFL contracts.

At Central Missouri, Teter was responsible for implementing the strength and conditioning programs for all 17 of the school's intercollegiate sports. He directly supervised football, men's and women's basketball, baseball, softball, men's and women's golf, wrestling and bowling.

Teter worked with two national championship teams during his stint in Warrensburg. The Mules men's basketball team captured the NCAA Division II title in 2014 and the Jennies women's soccer team won it all in 2017.

Teter joined the Central Missouri staff in December of 2010 as a graduate assistant in strength and conditioning before leading the department.

Prior to working at Central Missouri, Teter was a strength and conditioning intern at MidAmerica Nazarene University in Olathe, Kansas.

A two-year football letterman at Butler Community College, Teter transferred to Kansas and earned his bachelor's degree in sports science from KU in 2010. He graduated from Central Missouri in 2016 with a master's degree in physical education.

Teter is SCCC certified through the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association (CSCCa) and holds a USA Weightlifting Level 1 Performance certification.

DAN WEBB

Assistant Strength & Conditioning Coach

A strength and conditioning intern during the 2018 season, Dan Webb was promoted to assistant strength and conditioning coach for football in the spring of 2019.

In his time at Syracuse, he has helped implement the strength and conditioning program that has seen six Orange players drafted and more than a dozen sign NFL contracts.

Webb previously worked as the director of strength and conditioning for the Akron football program from 2012-14. He spent the 2011 season as a graduate assistant for the Zips.

From 2008-10, Webb was a member of the strength and conditioning staff at Michigan, serving one year as an intern and two seasons as an assistant coach. During that time he trained student-athletes from multiple sports, including football, men's ice hockey and wrestling.

Prior to joining the Akron staff, Webb worked at Strength In Motion in Syracuse. He taught proper Olympic lifting techniques, nutrition and customized training programs for his clients. Among the athletes he worked with were select members of the Orange men's basketball team.

Webb has a bachelor's degree in kinesiology and fitness development from SUNY Cortland and a master's degree in sport science and coaching from Akron. He is a member of the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA) and is a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS).

BRAD WITTKE

Director of Operations

Brad Wittke was named Syracuse's director of football operations in January of 2016 after serving in the same capacity for head coach Dino Babers at Bowling Green in 2015.

Wittke is responsible for the day-to-day operations of the Orange program, including budget management, capital projects, travel, meals and the team calendar. He has a role in most non-coaching decisions and serves as director for the Dino Babers Summer Football Camp series.

He also took on additional roles during COVID, where he played a large part in Syracuse's return to play protocols. Syracuse played all-11 games as scheduled without any COVID cancellations or postponements, making them one of the few teams in the nation to do so.

In December 2018, Wittke was in charge of logistics for Syracuse's appearance in the Camping World Bowl. He oversaw all details and arrangements for the players, staff, student staff and staff families when the team shifted its operations from Syracuse to Orlando, Florida for the final week of game preparation. Those responsibilities included coordinating travel, hotel accommodations, meals, practices and the team's participation in bowl-sponsored events.

Additional highlights of Wittke's tenure include working closely with Nike to design the uniforms the Orange debuted in 2019 and leading several major projects to enhance Syracuse's football facilities. For more than a year, Wittke and Nike conducted extensive research to create a design that combined the rich history of Syracuse football with Nike's advanced performance technology, resulting in a uniform kit that drew rave reviews from players, fans and media alike. He also oversaw the upgrades made to the surfaces of the Ben Schwartzwalder and Maury Katz Practice Fields and spearheaded the redesign of multiple spaces utilized by Orange student-athletes and staff, including the player lounge, Ferguson Auditorium, parts of the Michael M. Bill '58 Locker Room, the weight room and the Ensley Athletic Center. That role continues to expand as Syracuse prepares for future football facility upgrades in the John A. Lally Athletic Complex, which broke ground on phase I of the $150 million capital project in May, 2022.

Wittke's stint at Bowling Green marked his return to the college ranks after three seasons in the front office of the Arena Football League's Pittsburgh Power. Before joining the Power, Wittke gained collegiate team operations experience at both Eastern Illinois and Arizona State.

While at Arizona State, Wittke served as an operations assistant for the men's basketball program. His responsibilities included film exchange, high school relations, recruiting travel and other duties.

At Eastern Illinois, Wittke was a graduate assistant for New Student Programs. Late in his time there, Wittke became a football scouting assistant where he aided in film analysis of future opponents and self scouting. Wittke also worked as an intern for PlayNextLevel.com while in Charleston.

Wittke began his Arena Football League tenure as an operations assistant with the Power shortly after the conclusion of the 2011 season. He assisted on all projects related to football operations, gameday experience and player personnel. He also coordinated travel and player accommodations.

The following year, Wittke was promoted to director of player personnel. He oversaw all decisions related to the recruitment and signing of players from July 2012 through the 2014 season. In that position, Wittke expanded the organization's scouting and recruitment initiatives and retooled a roster that improved by 11 wins from 2013 to 2014.

A 2009 Arizona State graduate with a degree in management, Wittke holds a master's degree in sport administration from Eastern Illinois.

Wittke and his wife, Jane, reside in Clay with their son, Brooks and daughter, Leighton.

Wittke's father, Roy, is the Orange football program's director of player personnel.

ROY WITTKE

Director of Player Personnel

A fixture in college football for four decades, Roy Wittke assumed the role of director of player personnel in 2020 after serving as Syracuse's director of player development for four seasons. Wittke is in charge of roster management and acts as the primary liaison between the program and University personnel, including the Student-Athlete Academic Development staff. Additionally, he oversees the team's community outreach programs and serves as an advisor to the Syracuse University chapter of Uplifting Athletes.

During Wittke's tenure, the Orange received AFCA Academic Honorable Mention status each season until the AFCA discontinued the recognition in 2018. Additionally, the team earned the 2016-17 'Cuse Cares Award for its outstanding commitment to community service.

Several players have been individually recognized for their civic engagement activities during Wittke's time at Syracuse. Linebacker Kielan Whitner was selected to the 2018 AFCA Allstate Good Works Team for his dedication to community service and enriching the lives of others. Former Uplifting Athletes chapter presidents Zack Mahoney and Sam Heckel were named finalists for the Uplifting Athletes Rare Disease Champion Award. Heckel was also voted to the inaugural Uplifting Athletes Rare Disease Champion Team in 2019. The trio all received the ACC's Top Six for Service Award at least once during their careers.

Prior to joining the Orange, Wittke was Bowling Green's recruiting coordinator (2015) and director of operations (2014) under Dino Babers.

Before making the transition from coach to administrator, Wittke spent 33 years on the sidelines. He coached 19 seasons at Eastern Illinois, 17 of which were spent as the offensive coordinator in two separate stints under head coach Bob Spoo.

As the architect of the Panthers offense from 1990-2002, Wittke helped EIU win 82 games and make five FCS playoff appearances. He is best known for developing former Dallas Cowboys Pro Bowl quarterback Tony Romo during that period. Under Wittke's direction, Romo was named Ohio Valley Conference Player of the Year three times and captured the 2002 Walter Payton Award as the best player in Division I-AA (now FCS). Wittke was honored as the AFCA Division I-AA Assistant Coach of the Year in Romo's senior season of 2002, as the Panthers ranked fourth in the nation in scoring (35.3 ppg) and fifth in total offense (452.6 ypg).

Wittke coached 14 players who earned All-America honors and numerous all-league selections in both the Ohio Valley Conference and Gateway Football Conference during his first stint at EIU. In addition, three of his offensive units ranked among the top five in EIU single-season history for both total offense and scoring.

After the 2002 season, Wittke worked as the offensive coordinator at Arkansas from 2003-05. He spent one season each at Arizona State (2006) and Northern Illinois (2007). In 2003, he helped the Razorbacks to the Independence Bowl. Wittke coached in the 2006 Hawaii Bowl with Arizona State.

Wittke returned to Eastern Illinois as offensive coordinator in 2008. His second go-around with the Panthers included tutoring another NFL quarterback – Jimmy Garoppolo. The second-round pick of the New England Patriots in 2014, Garoppolo earned Ohio Valley Conference Newcomer of the Year honors in 2010 despite only eight starts. Garoppolo continued his development under Wittke in 2011 and, like Romo, eventually went on to win the Walter Payton Award as the top FCS player as a senior in 2013.

After the 2011 season, Wittke made the move to administration, serving as EIU's director of operations under Babers from 2012-13.

In addition to his stops at Eastern Illinois, Arkansas and Northern Illinois, Wittke's coaching résumé includes stints at his alma mater, the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire (1979-81), Montana State (1982-84) and Central Missouri State (1985-89).

Wittke is a 1982 graduate of Wisconsin-Eau Claire. He and his wife, Patty, have three children – sons Brad and Jeff, and daughter Bekah. Brad Wittke is Syracuse's director of football operations.

GAME #1
Sept. 4, 2021 // Peden Stadium
Attendance: 23,904

SYRACUSE	29
OHIO	6

ATHENS, Ohio – Sean Tucker's career night pushed the Orange to a season opening road win. He rushed for a career-high 181 yards on 25 carries, including a six-yard touchdown run, guiding Syracuse to a 29-9 win over Ohio. The Orange rushed for 286 total yards, while holding Ohio to 129. Tommy DeVito rushed for a six yard touchdown on Syracuse's opening drive, giving the Orange a lead that it never conceded. DeVito completed 11-of-17 attempts for 90 yards in addition to the touchdown run. Ohio had the ball on their own one-yard line with 6:30 left in the first when Caleb Okechukwu's safety made it 9-0 Syracuse.

After Ohio scored two field goals in the second quarter to make it a one possession game going into the second half, the Orange defense held Ohio scoreless in the third. Andre Szmyt's 20-yard field goal gave 'Cuse a 15-6 advantage and Tucker's six-yard touchdown extended the lead to 22-6. A Cooper Lutz touchdown run would push that lead to 29-9. Darian Chestnut's late interpection closed out the program's 85th season-opening win.

RUTGERS	17
SYRACUSE	7

SYRACUSE, N.Y. – Syracuse's defense welcomed fans back to the Carrier Dome with a stellar showing in a close loss to former Big East rival Rutgers. The Orange limited the Rutgers offense to just 195 total yards of offense and a 3-15 third down conversion rate. Second year linebacker Mikel Jones led the defense with 11 total tackles and 2.5 tackles for a loss, one of them coming on a 4th down stop in the second quarter. Junior wide receiver Taj Harris extended his streak of games with a reception to 14 with a eight reception, 122 yard effort.

After a scoreless first half, Rutgers opened the scoring in the third frame with a 11 yard touchdown run by Kyle Monangai. Syracuse would respond quickly with a three-play, 75 yard drive that ended with Sean Tucker finding the endzone on a 24-yard run, 7-7. Tucker's run was set up by a deep sideline pass from Tommy DeVito to Harris for 51 yards, Syracuse's longest play of the game. Rutgers would regain the lead in the closing moments of the third frame with a 30-yard touchdown strike by senior quarterback Noah Verdal, 14-7.

In the fourth, a Syracuse turnover deep in their own zone allowed the Scarlett Knights to take their largest lead of the game with a 27-yard field goal by Valentino Ambrosio.

LIBERTY	21
SYRACUSE	24

SYRACUSE, N.Y.- Syracuse ended their three game homestand in thrilling fashion. Andre Szmyt kicked 35-yard field goal as time expired to secure the win for the Orange over a Liberty team that won 15 of their last 16 dating back to 2019. The game winning kick was set up by a Syracuse takeaway, as Cody Roscoe and Marlowe Wax combined to force a Malik Willis fumble. Mikel Jones recovered, and a deep drive by the Syracuse offense drained the clock and put Szmyt in prime position to win the game.

All of the Orange's touchdowns came on the ground, as Sean Tucker led Syracuse with 168 rushing yards. He's now the 14th player in program history to have six or more 100-yard rushing games. Tucker's accomplished the feat in just 13 games. Garrett Shrader made his first start in a Syracuse jersey, as he tallied two rushing touchdowns.

Syracuse jumped out to a 14-0 lead in the first half with a Sean Tucker 27-yard touchdown run. Liberty would cut into the lead before the half ended with a seven yard touchdown, 14-7. When play resumed, Shrader ran the ball up the middle of the Liberty defense to make the score 21-7. Two unanswered Liberty scores tied the game at 21-all, before Syracuse came away with the ball and the eventual game winning drive.

SYRACUSE	30
FLORIDA STATE	33

TALLAHASSEE, Fla.- Syracuse came up short in a 33-30 loss at Florida State. The Orange trailed by 10 twice in the final 20 minutes but fought back to tie the game at 30, before the 'Noles drilled a walk-off field goal in the ACC opener. Garrett Shrader tied the Syracuse record for rushing TDs in a game by a quarterback (3) and Sean Tucker rushed for 102 yards to record his seventh career 100-yard rushing game. Shrader threw for 150 yards and one touchdown.

FSU took a 10-point lead, 30-20, early in the fourth quarter. Shrader connected with Anthony Queely to once again make it a three-point game with 10:35 to play. Syracuse's defense came up big with an interception by freshman Darian Chestnut. Rushes by Shrader and Tucker put 'Cuse in field goal range where Szmyt connected for 24 yards, 30-30. SU forced a three-and-out but were unable to get to field goal range as FSU took over with 1:03 to play. A 34-yard field goal as time expired gave FSU the win.

WAKE FOREST	40
SYRACUSE	37

SYRACUSE, N.Y.- Syracuse quarterback Garrett Shrader and freshman running back Sean Tucker combined for 353 rushing yards and three rushing touchdowns but it was not enough as No. 19 Wake Forest defeated the Orange in overtime. Syracuse forced overtime with a 94-yard scoring drive that ended with a 28-yard touchdown pass from Shrader to Tucker with 21 seconds left, 34-34.

In overtime, Syracuse scored first, with a 38-yard field goal by Szmyt, 37-34. Wake's Sam Hartman found Perry in the back corner of the end zone with a 22-yard pass to end the game. Syracuse posted a season-high 514 yards of total offense. The Orange's 354 rushing yards were the most since 2014.

CLEMSON	17
SYRACUSE	14

SYRACUSE, N.Y.- For the fourth-straight week, Syracuse came down to the wire. However, the Orange ended up on the wrong side of their bid to defeat Clemson, falling 17-14 after a game-tying field goal attempt missed in the final minute.

Sean Tucker tied a school record with his fifth-straight 100-yard rushing game. He finished with 22 carries for 157 yards and improved his season total to 948 yards. It's the 20th best single-season rushing total in program history through just seven weeks.

Clemson struck first after a scoreless first quarter. DJ Uiagalelei threw a 19-yard touchdown pass to Joseph Ngata with 9:06 to go before half. Syracuse responded with a touchdown of their own to tie the game with a Shrader two-yard rush. Clemson went ahead with a Kobe Pace rushing touchdown with nine seconds remaining, 14-7.

Clemson's Potter had a 40-yard field goal with 9:22 to play in regulation to give the Tigers a 17-7 lead, but Syracuse again made things interesting late. Shrader delivered a 62-yard touchdown strike through a big hit to Trebor Pena. It was Pena's first collegiate touchdown reception.

A huge stop by the Orange defense put the ball back in Shrader's hands as 'Cuse stormed down the field but a missed their 48-yard attempt on fourth and one sealed the game in favor of the visitors with 39 seconds to go.

VIRGINIA TECH	36

BLACKSBURG, Va. - Syracuse scored twice in the final three minutes, capped off Damien Alford catching a 45-yard pass over the top with 19 seconds to play, to put SU up 41-36.

The Hokies' hail mary attempt failed and SU recorded its first ACC road victory since November 2019, snapping a seven-game skid, and evening their 2021 record to 4-4.

Garrett Shrader ran for three touchdowns and threw for two more. His three rushing touchdowns tied the program record for rushing TDs by a quarterback in a game.

Tucker surpassed the 1,000-yard rushing mark to become the first Orange ball carrier to run for 1,000 yards in a season since Antwon Bailey in 2011.

BOSTON COLLEGE	6
SYRACUSE	21

SYRACUSE, N.Y. - The Orange scored three touchdowns in under five minutes for a come-from-behind 21-6 win against Boston College. The 21-point third quarter marked the second-straight game Syracuse put three touchdowns on the scoreboard in a single quarter after using a three-score fourth to beat Virginia Tech.

Sean Tucker moved to third on Syracuse's single-season rushing list with a career high 207 yards and his 13th touchdown, 11th rushing, of the season.

The game was off to a slow start in the first half with Boston College putting the only points on the scoreboard with a 31-yard field goal by Connor Lytton to lead 3-0 at the break.

After the Eagles settled for a field goal in the third quarter, the Orange rally began with a Tucker 51-yard rushing touchdown to make it 7-6 at 7:53 in the third.

The Orange stifled Boston College's offense forcing a three-and-out on the Eagle's next possession. On Syracuse's next drive, Shrader converted on third and one from the BC 48-yard line and took it to the house to up the lead to 14-6.

After yet another Eagles punt, Courtney Jackson's 64-yard punt return gave the Orange their third-unanswered touchdown in the third quarter.

Syracuse's win marks the second time this season the Orange kept the opposition out of the end-zone, and the first time holding a conference team without a touchdown since beating Duke 49-6 on Nov. 16, 2019.

LOUISVILLE	41

LOUISVILLE, Ky. - Syracuse was held without a touchdown for the first time this season in an eventual, 41-3 victory, for the Cards on Saturday.

Cunningham got the Cards on the board first with a six-yard scamper into the end zone to cap the host's first possession.

Syracuse retaliated on its next drive, advancing 50 yards to the Louisville 25 before settling for a 43-yard field goal by Andre Szmyt.

Cunningham connected with three receivers on scoring throws that upped the Cardinal advantage to 28-3 with 8:19 to go in the first half....Louisville padded its lead on the first drive of the second half. The Syracuse halted a Cardinal advance that reached the Orange 16 and James Turner kicked a 33-yard field goal.

Turner finished off the game scoring with a 27-yard field goal with 2:25 left in the contest.

Orange running back Sean Tucker surpassed 1,300 yards rushing on the season after carrying 19 times for 95 yards. Tucker passed Walter Reyes (1,347) on the Syracuse season rushing yards list and now trails only school record-holder Joe Morris (1,372).

NC STATE	41

RALEIGH, N.C. - Sean Tucker broke a record that stood for 42 years, becoming the Orange's single-season rushing leader, but it wasn't enough to take down No. 25 NC State. The Wolfpack came away victorious in the team's road finale 41-17.

Tucker finished the day with 13 carries for 105 yards, his ninth 100-yard game through 11 weeks this season. But it was a 17-yard run up the right side in the second quarter that etched his name into record books at a school known for its running back pedigree. Joe Morris' 1979 season of 1,372 was surpassed by Tucker – who now sits at (1,467).

Garrett Shrader ran 17 times for 70 yards, while Mikel Jones led the Orange defense with 12 tackles and 2.5 tackles for loss. Offensively NC State out-gained the Orange 399 to 265, adding a defensive score and a kick return touchdown to win all phases.

PITTSBURGH	31
SYRACUSE	14

SYRACUSE, N.Y. - Syracuse fell 31-14 to Pittsburgh in the Dome finale on Saturday night. The Orange finish the regular season at 5-7, four wins better than their 2020 campaign.

Syracuse led 7-0 at the end of the first quarter thanks to a 12-yard touchdown pass from Garrett Shrader to Courtney Jackson. Jackson finished with two touchdowns and a career-high seven catches for 73 yards.

Pitt tied the game 7-7 when Kenny Pickett met Rodney Hammond Jr. with a 15-yard touchdown pass at the 7:25 mark in the second quarter to even the game, then the Panthers took the lead after a 25-yard touchdown pass from Pickett to Jordan Addison.

The score began a run of 28 unanswered points after Syracuse's opening touchdown to lead 28-7 before Shrader found Jackson in the end zone for a second time with two minutes to play in the third quarter. Shrader had his most efficient passing game of the season, completing 17-of-24 passes for 217 yards.

SYRACUSE FOOTBALL CHRONOLOGY

Coached by Bobby Winston, the 1890 Syracuse football team was the first Orange squad to play a full season. The team posted a 7-4 record.

1889
On Nov. 23, Syracuse traveled to Rochester for its first intercollegiate football game. Wearing pink and blue uniforms, Syracuse lost 36-0 to finish the season 0-1.

1890
Orange was adopted as the school color and Syracuse's athletic teams are henceforth known as "Orange" or "Orangemen." Bobby Winston became the program's first head coach. The Orange defeated the Syracuse Athletic Association 14-0 in the season opener for their first football victory en route to a 7-4 record.

1891
The Orange defeated Rochester (18-16) and the Syracuse Athletic Association (22-10) in its final two games to finish with a 4-7 record in William Galbraith's only year as head coach.

1892
The only season in Syracuse football history with no wins when at least two games were played. The Orange went 0-8-1 under coach Jordan C. Wells.

1893
Without an official coach, the Orange finished the season with a 4-9-1 record. The team posted triumphs against Syracuse High School, Hamilton College, Onondaga Academy and Cazenovia.

1894
In his only season as Syracuse's head coach, George H. Bond led the Orange to a 6-5 record.

1895
The Orange secured their first real home field, as Syracuse went from playing in parks throughout the city to playing at The Oval, which was a space located behind the Hall of Languages. The Orange recorded their first victory against rival Colgate, winning by the score of 4-0.

1896
The Orange played their first opponent from outside New York state, losing to Williams College, 24-6.

1897
The Colgate "Hoodoo" was born when a newspaper reporter sympathetic to the Raiders' cause tackled an Orange player who was on his way to scoring the winning touchdown. The game ended in a 6-6 tie.

1898
The Orange posted an 8-2-1 record, outscoring their opponents 192-69 under the direction of head coach Frank E. Wade.

1899
Syracuse finished 4-4 in the final season of head coach Frank E. Wade's three-year tenure.

1900
Edwin Sweetland, a Cornell grad, was hired as head football coach and to start the crew program. He guided the Orange to a 7-2-1 record, including six shutouts. Sweetland later coached against Syracuse as the head coach at Colgate.

1901
Success builds for the program, as the Orange closed the season with a 7-1 record. The lone loss came against Lafayette, 5-0.

1902
A 23-0 shutout of rival Colgate was an important win for the Orange, as they cruised to a 6-2-1 record. Other big victories were against the Onondaga Indians, Amherst and Williams.

1903
The program gained momentum as its budget increased to $5,500. Jason B. Parish and Ancil D. Brown served as co-coaches and led the Orange to a 5-4 record.

1904
In Dr. Charles P. Hutchins' first season as head coach, Syracuse finished 6-3. In a victory against Manhattan, the Orange put 144 points on the board, a team record that still stands.

1905
The Orange recorded six shutouts and finished the season with an overall record of 8-3 in Dr. Charles P. Hutchins' second and final year at the helm.

1906
Head coach Frank J. (Buck) O'Neill was hired. He piloted the Orange to a 6-3 record in the team's last season at The Oval. On Nov. 17, the Orange handed Lafayette its only loss of the year, 12-4.

1907
The Orange opened Archbold Stadium, a 20,000-seat venue, with a 28-0 victory against Hobart. The stadium provided the Orange with one of the finest facilities of its time. Once called the "Eighth Wonder of the World," Archbold was just the third concrete stadium built in the United States. A 22-0 victory against Hamilton on Oct. 26 was the program's 100th win. Marquis (Bill) Horr became the program's first All-American when he was named to Walter Camp's "Second Eleven."

1908
Howard Jones was hired as head coach. The Orange posted a 6-3-1 record and along the way played their first Western Conference (now Big Ten) opponent, beating Michigan, 28-4. Bill Horr became the first Syracuse player to be named a first-team All-American when he was recognized by Walter Camp for the second year in a row.

1909
Syracuse went 4-5-1 during the first of two seasons for head coach T.A.D. Jones, who took over the program after his brother, Howard, left after one year to become the head coach at Yale.

1910
In its 22nd season of intercollegiate football, Syracuse finished 5-4-1. T.A.D. Jones ended his two-year tenure as head coach with a 9-9-2 overall mark. Caspar Whitney included center Harry Hartman and tackle Rudy Probst on his "Honor List" in Outing Magazine. Taking into account the opinions of both Eastern and Western coaches, Whitney's selections were considered a more accurate representation of the nation's top players than many of the Eastern-centric All-America teams compiled at the time.

1911
First-year head coach C. DeForest Cummings led the Orange to a 5-3-2 season, including a 6-0 shutout of Ohio State and a 12-11 upset of Pop Warner's Carlisle team that featured the legendary Jim Thorpe. End A. Harry Kallett earned Walter Camp Third Team All-America honors. Rudy Probst and quarterback Preston Fogg were named to Caspar Whitney's "Honor List."

1912
After opening the season with a 12-0 victory against in-state rival Hobart, Syracuse was 4-5 in C. DeForest Cummings' last season as head coach. Rudy Probst received All-America honors for the third time, earning "Second Eleven" kudos from Walter Camp.

1913
Buck O'Neill, who led the program to a winning season in 1907, returned to coach the Orange. He guided Syracuse to six wins, its highest total since 1908.

1914
The Orange opened the year 2-0 and posted a 5-3-2 overall record. Among the victories was an 81-0 rout of Hamilton, the third-largest margin of victory in program history. Guard Harold White and halfbacks Tam Rose and Marcus Wilkinson garnered "Honor List" plaudits from Caspar Whitney.

1915
Syracuse's first powerhouse team finished 9-1-2, recording seven shutouts and outscoring the opposition, 331-16. Syracuse was invited to the Rose Bowl to play Washington, but declined because an earlier West Coast trip (the first by an Eastern school) to Oregon State had used up the program's travel budget. Guards Christopher Schlacter and Harold White were both named All-Americans.

1916
In his only season, head coach William Hollenback led Syracuse to a 5-4 record. The Orange scored more than 50 points in three of their five victories, including a 73-0 shutout of Ohio University.

1917
All-America tackle Alfred Cobb captained the Orange gridders to an 8-1-1 record. Syracuse closed the year with six consecutive wins.

1918
The Orange were 5-1 with four shutouts in Buck O'Neill's penultimate season as head coach. Joe Alexander earned the first of his three consecutive first-team All-America awards. Louis Usher, Joe Schwarzer and Willard Ackley also received All-America recognition.

1919
All-American Joe Alexander and the Orange finished 8-3 in the last year of Buck O'Neill's tenure as head coach. O'Neill was the Syracuse sideline leader for a total of eight seasons (1906-07, 1913-15, 1917-19).

1920
Team captain Joe Alexander received All-America honors for the third straight year. He and first-year head coach John Meehan guided the Orange to a 6-2-1 record. Alexander was enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame in 1954. Tackle Bertrand Gulick turned in the first of his two All-America campaigns.

1921
Syracuse recorded its ninth straight winning season. Led by All-American Bertrand Gulick, the Orange went 7-2. Gifford Zimmerman was the first player in team history to wear the fabled No. 44. The number remained in circulation until it was retired in 2005, but was not worn after 1998.

1922
Third-year coach John Meehan led the Orange to a 6-1-2 record. The team's only loss was a 21-14 decision to Pittsburgh. The season saw the beginning of the Penn State series, which started with a scoreless tie at the Polo Grounds in New York City. Roy Simmons Sr. was the squad's quarterback, marking the start of a relationship between the Simmons family and Syracuse University Athletics that continues to this day. After his playing career concluded in 1924, Simmons coached the Orange lacrosse and boxing teams, as well as served as an assistant football coach. Roy Simmons Jr. was Syracuse's men's lacrosse coach from 1971 through 1998, taking the reins of the program from his father when he retired in 1970. Roy Simmons III is the men's lacrosse team's current director of operations. Future College Football Hall of Fame coach Lynn "Pappy" Waldorf earned second-team All-America honors at tackle.

1923
All-America end Evander (Pete) MacRae was part of an Orange defense that allowed only 19 points and posted seven shutouts. Syracuse went 8-1 with its only loss a 16-7 defeat against rival Colgate.

1924
The Orange won eight games (8-2-1 overall) for the second consecutive year and defeated Boston College for the 200th victory in program history on Oct. 18. Lynn "Pappy" Waldorf was named an All-American for the third time.

1925
Clarence Thomas became the first quarterback to wear the storied No. 44. He led the team to an 8-1-1 record in C.W.P. Reynolds' first year as head coach. The defense posted a school-record six consecutive shutouts. End Vic Hanson was an Associated Press Third Team All-American.

1926
Behind Vic Hanson, the Orange outscored their opponents 225-59 on their way to a 7-2-1 record. Hanson earned All-America honors again and captained the basketball team during the winter months. Hanson is the only athlete enshrined in both the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame and College Football Hall of Fame.

1927
In his first year as head coach, Lew Andreas led Syracuse to four straight wins to start the season and a 5-3-2 overall record.

1928
After a 3-0 start, the Orange finished the year with a 4-4-1 mark. The team scored a season-high 58 points in a win against Johns Hopkins on Oct. 13.

1929
Lew Andreas, who was Syracuse's basketball coach from 1924 through 1950, completed his three-year stint as football coach by guiding the Orange to a 6-3 season. Syracuse played the first night game in the East, beating Hobart, 77-0.

1930
Vic Hanson returned to Syracuse to coach the Orange after playing briefly in the New York Yankees farm system, highlighting his multi-faceted athletic ability. The Orange went 5-2-2 in Hanson's first year and end George Ellert was named an All-American.

1931
Syracuse outscored its foes 238-56 en route to a 7-1-1 season that featured seven straight wins to open the year.

1932
A 4-4-1 season included the program's 250th victory, a 27-6 win against Oglethorpe on Nov. 5.

1933
After a 3-0 start that included dominant wins against Clarkson and Ohio Wesleyan, Syracuse closed the season with a 4-4 record under fourth-year head coach Vic Hanson.

1934
All-America tackle James Steen led the Orange to a 6-2 record. Syracuse's six victories included back-to-back shutouts of Penn State and Michigan State.

1935
The Orange won six games for the second year in a row and finished the season 6-1-1. Senior guard Ed Jontos became Syracuse's first pro football draft pick when he was selected 45th overall by the New York Giants in the 1936 NFL Draft.

SYRACUSE FOOTBALL CHRONOLOGY

1936
The Orange defeated Clarkson to start the season, but lost their final seven games. Vic Hanson concluded his Syracuse coaching tenure with a seven-year record of 33-21-5.

1937
Ossie Solem succeeded Vic Hanson as head coach and led the team to a 5-2-1 mark. After starting 3-0, Syracuse made its first appearance in the Associated Press college football poll, debuting at No. 17 on Oct. 18 after defeating Cornell.

1938
Wilmeth Sidat-Singh, one of the first African-American quarterbacks to play college football, led Syracuse to a stunning 19-17 comeback win against Cornell and a 5-3 overall record. Among Sidat-Singh's teammates were Olympic sprinter and legendary announcer Marty Glickman, and the great Michigan State coach Hugh "Duffy" Daugherty. Sidat-Singh was also a star for the Orange on the basketball court. His basketball jersey was retired in February 2005.

1939
Syracuse went 3-3-2 and won its last two games. The defense set a team record, holding opponents to a 33.3 percent completion rate on forward passes.

1940
The Orange beat NYU 47-13 on Oct. 12. The game was played at Yankee Stadium in the Bronx in front of 8,000 people. The victory was part of a 3-4-1 campaign for fourth-year coach Ossie Solem.

1941
The Orange posted a 5-2-1 record and returned to the national rankings, checking in at No. 18 in the AP poll after a 27-20 triumph at Wisconsin. The Syracuse special teams unit set the school record for most punt return yards (662).

1942
Winning the first five games of the season, the Orange were ranked as high as 15th in the AP poll and went on to finish with a 6-3 record.

1943
Syracuse University suspended intercollegiate sports due to World War II.

1944
The Orange concluded the year with a 2-4-1 record, including playing a game against Boston College at historic Fenway Park.

1945
Ossie Solem ended his eight-year Syracuse coaching stint, guiding the Orange to a 1-6 record. He finished with a 30-27-6 overall coaching mark.

1946
Future College Football Hall of Famer Clarence L. "Biggie" Munn served as Orange head coach and went 4-5 in his only year at the helm. Munn later coached at Michigan State. The Orange program enjoyed its 300th win, a 28-7 victory against Temple.

Legendary running back Jim Brown was voted Syracuse's first unanimous All-American as a senior in 1956.

1947
Reaves Baysinger became head coach and promptly changed the Orange's uniform from a blue jersey with orange numbers to white to go along with khaki moleskin pants. He led Syracuse to a 3-6 record.

1948
In the second and final year for head coach Reaves Baysinger, the Orange amassed a 1-8 record. The team's only win was a 13-9 season-opening victory against Niagara.

1949
Ben Schwartzwalder was hired as head coach after five consecutive losing seasons. Schwartwalder won four games in his first year, including a 35-7 triumph over rival Colgate.

1950
A 5-5 season featured a four-game winning streak in the middle of the year. Avatus Stone set the school record (since tied) by intercepting three passes in a 27-7 win versus Penn State.

1951
Syracuse enjoyed its first winning season since 1942, logging a 5-4 mark. The Syracuse defense forced a school-record nine turnovers against Lafayette. Off the field, Howard Jones and Buck O'Neill were the first individuals associated with the program to be inducted into the College Football Hall Fame.

1952
Tackles Robert Fleck and William Skyinskus earned All-America honors, leading Syracuse to a 7-2 record and its first bowl appearance. Syracuse lost to Alabama 61-6 in the Orange Bowl. Future Pro Football Hall of Fame center Jim Ringo concluded his three-year Orange career.

1953
Robert Fleck moved to guard and earned his second consecutive All-America award as the Orange finished 5-3-1 during head coach Ben Schwartzwalder's fifth season in charge.

1954
A halfback from Long Island, well down the preseason depth chart, was issued jersey No. 44. His name was Jim Brown. Syracuse finished 4-4 and won three of its last four games.

1955
The Syracuse defense shined, allowing 35 completions on 95 pass attempts – still team records for the fewest season completions and attempts by the opposition. Jim Brown earned All-America honors in his second season and the Orange finished with a 5-3 record. They were ranked as high as No. 18 in the AP poll.

1956
With a bowl bid on the line in the regular-season finale versus Colgate, Jim Brown scored a then NCAA-record 43 points in Syracuse's 61-7 victory. The Orange completed the regular season 7-1, earning an invitation to the Cotton Bowl, where it lost 28-27 to TCU. Brown broke the Syracuse single-season rushing record with 986 yards and became the first unanimous All-American in school history. Brown went on to a Hall of Fame career with the NFL's Cleveland Browns after he was the sixth overall selection by the Browns in the 1957 NFL Draft. In 1995, Brown was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame.

1957
All-America end Dick Lasse led Syracuse to a 5-3-1 record. The Orange recorded the 350th win in team history with a 26-9 victory against Nebraska.

1958
Tackle Ronald Luciano, a future Major League Baseball umpire, earned All-America honors. The Orange posted an 8-2 record behind a defense recorded four shutouts and allowed just 59 points during the season. Syracuse lost to No. 5 Oklahoma 21-6 in the Orange Bowl.

1959
NATIONAL CHAMPIONS
Undefeated, untied and national champions, the Orange capped an 11-0 season with their first bowl win, a 23-14 victory over Texas in the Cotton Bowl. Syracuse enjoyed its finest year on the gridiron, pulverizing foes both offensively and defensively. The defense allowed a mind-boggling 193 yards rushing in 10 games (19.3 ypg). On offense, the Orange averaged 451 yards a game. The team featured five All-Americans, including guard Roger Davis, who was the seventh overall selection by the Chicago Bears in the 1960 NFL Draft.

1960
Halfback Ernie Davis earned one of his two first-team All-America honors for the 7-2 Orange. Syracuse spent two weeks ranked No. 1 in the UPI poll. The team won its first five games to extend its school-record winning streak to 16 games before a home loss to Pittsburgh on Oct. 29 ended the run. The Philadelphia Eagles selected fullback Art Baker with the 14th overall pick in the 1961 NFL Draft.

1961
Ernie Davis won the Heisman Trophy, becoming the first African-American to receive college football's most prestigious award. Along the way, he broke Jim Brown's career rushing record and led the Orange to an 8-3 season, capped by a Liberty Bowl win against Miami (Fla.). Davis, who was later enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame, was the top pick in the 1962 NFL Draft. He died of leukemia less than two years later.

1962
The Orange began the year 1-3, but recovered to finish 5-5. End Walt Sweeney was a first-round selection by the AFL's San Diego Chargers in the 1963 draft.

1963
The Orange won seven of their last eight contests to finish 12th in the UPI poll with an 8-2 record. John Mackey began his NFL career as a tight end for the Baltimore Colts, where he eventually played in two Super Bowls. In 1992, Mackey was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

1964
Sophomore halfback Floyd Little, who was recruited to Syracuse by Ernie Davis, earned All-America honors from three selectors in his first season. Center Pat Killorin also received All-America accolades. The team went 7-4 and made an appearance in the Sugar Bowl, losing to LSU, 13-10. The program celebrated its 400th win – a 38-6 victory against Kansas – on Sept. 26.

1965
All-Americans Floyd Little (halfback), Charles Brown (defensive halfback) and Pat Killorin (center) led the Orange to a 7-3 record. Syracuse was 19th in the final UPI poll and won five of its last six games. Little led the nation in all-purpose yards (1,990), punt return average (23.5) and touchdowns scored (19).

1966
Halfback Floyd Little and fullback Larry Csonka, the greatest one-two running punch in Orange history, powered the team to an 8-3 record and a Gator Bowl berth. Little set a Syracuse bowl-game record with 216 yards rushing, while Csonka added 114 in an 18-12 loss to Tennessee. Little, Csonka and tackle Gary Bugenhagen earned All-America honors. Little was selected by the Denver Broncos with the sixth pick in the 1967 NFL/AFL Draft.

1967
Larry Csonka earned All-America honors for the second year in a row after rushing for 1,127 yards and eight touchdowns to propel Syracuse to an 8-2 record. The Miami Dolphins selected Csonka, who went on to be enshrined in both the College and Pro Football Halls of Fame, with the eighth pick in the 1968 NFL/AFL Draft.

1968
The Orange rose to No. 10 in the national polls and finished with a 6-4 record. Defensive halfback Anthony Kyasky, defensive end Lou Gubitosa and defensive tackle Art Thoms earned All-America honors. Thoms was the 22nd overall selection by the Oakland Raiders in the 1969 NFL/AFL Draft.

1969
The Orange were 5-5 with back-to-back shutouts of Arizona and Navy in November. Against Penn State, Greg Allen set the single-game record for most individual punt return yards with 172.

1970
Facing a boycott by a group of Black players, Syracuse was outscored 100-29 in its first three games, but rebounded to win six of its last seven contests. The "Syracuse Eight," as the group was called by the media, sat out the season calling for the equal treatment of players and a diverse coaching staff. On the field, All-America defensive tackle Joe Ehrmann led the Orange to a 6-4 record.

1971
All-American Tommy Myers intercepted a Syracuse single-season record eight passes during a 5-5-1 campaign in which a 28-24 win against West Virginia gave the program its 450th victory.

1972
The Syracuse streak of 22 consecutive non-losing seasons came to an end. The Orange lost at West Virginia in the season finale to finish 5-6. Defensive tackle Joe Ehrmann was the 10th overall pick in the 1973 NFL Draft by the Baltimore Colts.

1973
Ben Schwartzwalder retired after a 2-9 season. Schwartzwalder led the Orange to a 153-91-3 record in 25 years as head coach. He was enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame in 1982. Guard Dave Lapham was voted an Associated Press Third Team All-American.

1974
Syracuse started Coach Frank Maloney's seven-year tenure with a 23-15 triumph against Oregon State, but lost nine of its last 10 to close the season 2-9.

1975
All-American Ray Preston led the Orange to a 6-5 record and was invited to play in the East-West Shrine Bowl. Preston enjoyed a nine-year (1976-84) NFL career as a linebacker for the San Diego Chargers.

1976
After a 3-8 campaign, Associated Press Honorable Mention All-American Tim Moresco played in the last American Bowl. He intercepted a pass for the victorious North squad.

1977
Syracuse posted its second winning season under Frank Maloney, going 6-5, including four consecutive victories to end the year.

1978
Joe Morris set the school freshman rushing record with 1,001 yards. It was a performance that included a then-school season record four consecutive 100-yard games. In the final game at Archbold Stadium, Morris ran for 203 yards to power the Orange to a 20-17 victory against nationally-ranked Navy. Syracuse bid farewell to Archbold having compiled a 261-104-20 record at the facility.

THE SYRACUSE 8

In 1970, a group of Syracuse University football team members, known today as the "Syracuse 8," showed extraordinary courage and commitment by calling for the equal treatment of student-athletes and a diverse coaching staff. As talented scholarship athletes, these men were aware of the potential consequences of their actions. Despite this risk, they took a strong, principled stand. When their calls for action were not honored, they made the difficult decision to leave the team and give up a game they loved and the potential professional success it could bring.

Although mistakenly dubbed the "Syracuse 8" by media reports in 1970, the group included nine individuals: Gregory Allen '72, Richard Bulls '73, John Godbolt '73, Dana Harrell '71, G '73, John Lobon '73, Clarence "Bucky" McGill '72, A. Alif Muhammad '71, Duane Walker '80 and Ron Womack '71.

At a special ceremony in October 2006, former Syracuse University Chancellor and President Nancy Cantor awarded these former Orange football players the University's Chancellor's Medal.

"These events celebrate the courage and determination of the 'Syracuse 8' to stand up for their values and principles, even in the face of great personal sacrifice," Cantor said. "These alumni are emblematic of the values we want for our students and for ourselves when we face critical issues of justice and equality. Their courage stands today as a beacon and lesson for all of us as we continue to strive for a more just University, community and society."

The group was also recognized at halftime of the Orange's game against Louisville. During the ceremony the group was presented with their Syracuse letterman's jackets, which they never received after leaving the team.

In 2005, several of the players returned to campus for a panel discussion on the events surrounding the "Syracuse 8." Following that event, Art Monk '80 led an effort to create a special University committee to consider, and ultimately plan, a formal recognition and honoring of the group. Committee members included Monk, Gregory Allen '72, Dave Bing '66, Peter J. Estrada '82, Daryl Gross, Carmen Harlow '78, John L. Johnson, Floyd Little '67, John Lobon '73, Larry Martin, Angela Y. Robinson '78, Diane M. Weathers '71, Barry L. Wells and Roosevelt R. "Rick" Wright Jr. G'93.

Today, the "Syracuse 8" Courage Award is presented annually to a student-athlete who has overcome a socially, economically or otherwise disadvantaged background or serious injury and, in the opinion of his or her coaches and teammates, has demonstrated uncommon bravery or highly principled behavior in the face of adversity.

1979
With the razing of Archbold Stadium and the construction of the Carrier Dome, Syracuse spent the entire season on the road playing "home" games in the Meadowlands, Buffalo and Ithaca. Despite the obstacles, the Orange went 7-5 and defeated McNeese State in the Independence Bowl with future NFL players Joe Morris, Art Monk, Bill Hurley, Craig Wolfley, Gary Anderson and Jim Collins leading the way. Monk was the 18th overall selection in the 1980 NFL Draft by the Washington Redskins.

1980
The dawn of a new era began on Sept. 20 with the opening of the Carrier Dome. Joe Morris scored four touchdowns and racked up 300 all-purpose yards as the Orange christened their new home with a 36-24 win against Miami (Ohio). An all-time Syracuse record-crowd of 50,564 witnessed the event. The Orange were 5-6 in Frank Maloney's last year as head coach.

1981
Down-easterner Dick MacPherson arrived on the scene, replacing Frank Maloney as head coach. MacPherson guided the Orange to a 4-6-1 mark in his first year, including consecutive wins against Boston College and West Virginia to end the season. Running back Joe Morris concluded his career as Syracuse's all-time leading rusher. He and kicker Gary Anderson both earned All-America honors.

1982
Ben Schwartzwalder, the winningest coach in Syracuse football history, was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame. On the field, defensive tackle Michael Charles was named a first-team All-American for the 2-9 Orange.

1983
The Orange turned in their first winning season since 1979, going 6-5 in Dick MacPherson's third year as head coach. In addition, Syracuse hit a program milestone by winning its 500th game, 14-7, against Navy.

1984
Syracuse native Tim Green earned the first of two consecutive first-team All-America certificates at defensive tackle. Green and his teammates grabbed the nation's attention with a 17-9 home victory against No. 1 Nebraska during a 6-5 season.

1985
Syracuse began a run of seven bowl appearances in eight seasons, earning a spot opposite Maryland in the Cherry Bowl. Syracuse lost to the Terps 35-18 to close the year with a 7-5 record. Defensive tackle Tim Green was named a first-team All-American for the second year in a row. Green, who was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2001, was the 17th overall selection in the 1986 NFL Draft by the Atlanta Falcons.

1986
After an 0-4 start, the Orange won five of their final seven games to set the stage for a remarkable 1987 season.

The 1990 Orange earned the program's fourth consecutive bowl berth and defeated Arizona 28-0 in the Aloha Bowl in Honolulu, Hawaii.

1987
Dick MacPherson's bunch ended the regular season with an undefeated 11-0 record and earned a trip to the Sugar Bowl, Syracuse's first New Year's Day bowl bid since 1965. Auburn's Win Lyle kicked a last-second field goal to force a 16-16 tie, the first deadlock in Sugar Bowl history. Consensus All-American Don McPherson finished second in the Heisman race, but won several other player of the year awards. Nose guard Ted Gregory was also a consensus All-American. MacPherson was the consensus pick for national coach of the year and the Orange finished No. 4 in both polls.

1988
Syracuse put together consecutive double-digit win seasons for the first time, capping a 10-2 campaign with a decisive 23-10 victory against LSU in the Hall of Fame Bowl. Defensive back Markus Paul was named a first-team All-American by four selectors (AP, FWAA, Sporting News, Football News).

1989
Syracuse football observed its 100th birthday and earned a third straight bowl invitation. This time John Biskup hit a last-minute field goal to edge Georgia 19-18 in the Peach Bowl to cap an 8-4 season. Center John Flannery and wide receiver Rob Moore earned first-team All-America recognition. Moore entered his name in the 1990 NFL Supplemental Draft and was selected first overall by the New York Jets.

1990
The Orange finished the regular season with a 6-4-2 record and garnered an invitation to the Aloha Bowl in Honolulu. Syracuse put the finishing touches on its third straight bowl win by shutting out Arizona, 28-0. The Wildcats had not been blanked in 19 seasons (214 games), the second-longest streak in NCAA history at the time. Center John Flannery was named a first-team All-American for the second year in a row.

1991
Assistant coach Paul Pasqualoni replaced Dick MacPherson as head coach when MacPherson left to coach the NFL's New England Patriots. The Orange also joined the BIG EAST Football Conference after spending years as an Eastern independent. Pasqualoni led the Orange to a 10-2 record, a perfect 5-0 BIG EAST mark, and a 24-17 win against Ohio State in the Hall of Fame Bowl on New Year's Day. Qadry Ismail earned first-team All-America honors as a kick returner and became the school's first two-sport All-American since Jim Brown. Ismail's second All-America award was for track & field.

1992
Paul Pasqualoni and the Orange again won 10 games and made their second straight New Year's Day bowl appearance, knocking off Colorado 26-22 at the Fiesta Bowl in Tempe, Ariz. It was the fifth straight bowl victory for Syracuse, the second-longest postseason winning streak in the country at the time behind Florida State. Tight end Chris Gedney was a unanimous All-America selection.

1993
Another year, another winning season. The Orange finished with a 6-4-1 overall mark. Breaking records was a regular occurrence during the campaign. Marvin Graves set new standards in almost every passing and total offense category, while Shelby Hill, Pat O'Neill and Kevin Mitchell also etched their names in Syracuse's record book.

1994
In keeping with the tone of the recent past, the Orange recorded an eighth straight winning season, finishing 7-4 overall. The passing combination of Kevin Mason to Marvin Harrison was prominent throughout the year, while the return of linebacker Dan Conley for a sixth season of competition after numerous knee surgeries was a story of perseverance and dedication.

SYRACUSE FOOTBALL CHRONOLOGY

1995
A young Syracuse team posted a 9-3 record and a victory over Clemson in the Gator Bowl. The emergence of Donovan McNabb and his chemistry with receiver Marvin Harrison provided thrills and records, as Harrison established himself as one of the all-time great receivers and return men at Syracuse. Harrison was the 19th overall pick in the 1996 NFL Draft by the Indianapolis Colts. Defensively, cornerback Kevin Abrams earned first-team All-America honors.

1996
Despite an 0-2 start, the Orange won a share of the BIG EAST title once again and were among the nation's elite. An eight-game winning streak in the middle of the season resulted in another bowl bid. Syracuse beat Houston in the Liberty Bowl for its seventh consecutive postseason victory, which was the nation's longest bowl winning streak at the time. Cornerback Kevin Abrams received first-team All-America plaudits for the second year in a row.

Syracuse won its first outright BIG EAST championship, clinching the crown with a 33-18 triumph at Miami (Fla.). After starting the year 1-3, a 30-19 victory against Tulane ignited an eight-game winning streak. A 35-18 loss to Kansas State in the Fiesta Bowl did not detract from the fact the Orange were one of six teams to receive a Bowl Alliance bid. Safety Donovin Darius was a first-team All-America selection.

1998
After a 34-33 loss to eventual national champion Tennessee in the opener, the Orange defeated the previous year's national title winner, Michigan, the following week. From there, Syracuse went 7-3 to win its second outright BIG EAST title and third conference championship in a row. The Orange earned a Bowl Championship Series (BCS) berth in the first season of the BCS and lost to Florida in the Orange Bowl – Donovan McNabb's last game. McNabb was selected with the second overall pick by the Philadelphia Eagles in the 1999 NFL Draft, the highest a Syracuse quarterback has ever been taken. Kick returner Kevin Johnson earned first-team All-America honors.

1999
Syracuse earned a bowl invitation for the fifth straight year and the 11th time in 13 seasons. The Orange were 7-5 in the last year of the millennium and closed the century with a 20-13 victory against Kentucky in the Music City Bowl. All-America linebacker Keith Bulluck was selected in the first round (30th overall) of the 2000 NFL Draft by the Tennessee Titans. The University recognized the program's All-Century Team at the final home game versus Temple.

2000
Syracuse ran its streak of consecutive winning seasons to 14 with a 6-5 record. Cornerback Will Allen was taken with the 22nd overall pick in the first round of the 2001 NFL Draft by the New York Giants.

2001
Syracuse recorded its 15th straight winning season, posting a 10-3 record and topping Kansas State in the Insight.com Bowl. Unanimous All-American Dwight Freeney was selected in the first round of the 2002 NFL Draft, marking the fifth consecutive year that a Syracuse player heard his name called in the opening round.

2002
The Orange's string of winning seasons came to an end as Syracuse finished 4-8. The team played two triple-overtime games, including a 50-42 victory against No. 8 Virginia Tech. Quarterback Troy Nunes ended his time on The Hill ranked in the top five on 10 different school record lists. Linebacker Clifton Smith and punter Mike Shafer also concluded fine careers. In November, former quarterback Donovan McNabb was named to the University's Board of Trustees.

2003
Running back Walter Reyes established single-season records for rushing touchdowns (21) and total touchdowns (22) in leading the Orange to a 6-6 record. Receiver Johnnie Morant, defensive tackle Christian Ferrara and offensive tackle Kevin Sampson entered Syracuse's NFL Draft fraternity.

2004
Walter Reyes capped his college career as the program's second-leading rusher with 3,424 yards. The Orange earned a bowl berth for the first time since 2001, losing the Champs Sports Bowl 51-14 to Georgia Tech in Paul Pasqualoni's last game as head coach. Offensive tackle Adam Terry was chosen by the Baltimore Ravens in the second round of the 2005 NFL Draft.

2005
Head coach Greg Robinson, who also served as defensive coordinator, took over the program. Syracuse went 1-10, but boasted one of the most improved defenses in the country. The Orange jumped 69 spots in the NCAA statistical rankings in passing defense (90th to 21st) and went from 101st to 57th in total defense. Free safety Anthony Smith led a group of four seniors who were selected in the 2006 NFL Draft. Smith was picked in the third round by the defending Super Bowl champion Pittsburgh Steelers.

2006
Freshman Delone Carter emerged as a capable ball carrier during a 4-8 season. Carter ran for 713 yards, the second-best total for a first-year player in school history. Cornerback Tanard Jackson and linebacker Kelvin Smith were selected in the 2007 NFL Draft.

2007
The Orange went 2-10, but defeated nationally-ranked Louisville in a shootout, 38-35. Receiver Mike Williams had a touchdown reception in nine straight games, while the kick return duo of Max Suter and Mike Holmes also had big years. The pair keyed an Orange unit that led the BIG EAST in kickoff return average (24.8). Suter paced the FBS ranks with a nation-best 1,299 kickoff return yards.

2008
The world premiere of "The Express," the life story of Heisman Trophy winner Ernie Davis, was held in downtown Syracuse prior to the Orange's game against Penn State. On the field, Syracuse was 3-9 in Greg Robinson's final year as head coach. The team's biggest win was a last-minute, 24-23 victory at Notre Dame. Running back Curtis Brinkley established a Syracuse season record for consecutive 100-yard rushing games (5) and was one of four Orange players to sign with NFL teams after the season. Fullback Tony Fiammetta earned Pro Football Weekly All-America honors.

SYRACUSE FOOTBALL CHRONOLOGY

Doug Marrone returned to his alma mater to serve as the program's 28th head coach. Marrone brought in Syracuse native Greg Paulus to quarterback the Orange after a stellar four-year basketball career at Duke. Paulus led the Orange to a 4-8 record in his only season. Punter Rob Long and defensive tackle Arthur Jones earned All-BIG EAST First Team honors. Jones was selected in the fifth round of the 2010 NFL Draft by the Baltimore Ravens after helping the Orange rank sixth nationally in sacks and 13th in rushing defense.

2010
In his second year at the helm, Doug Marrone led Syracuse back to the postseason. The Orange went 8-5 and beat Kansas State in the inaugural New Era Pinstripe Bowl. Behind linebackers Doug Hogue and Derrell Smith, the Orange ranked seventh nationally in total defense. Running back Delone Carter paced the offense, rushing for 1,233 yards in his final season, including 198 yards against Kansas State to win Pinstripe Bowl MVP honors.

2011
The Orange got off to a 5-2 start, but lost its last five games to finish 5-7. Quarterback Ryan Nassib recorded the best statistical passing season in school history to that point, setting program records for completions (259), attempts (415), yards (2,685) and matching the record for touchdown passes (22). Defensive end Chandler Jones used a standout season to garner the attention of pro scouts. Jones was the first pick of the New England Patriots (21st overall) in the 2012 NFL Draft. Jones, Nick Provo, Andrew Tiller, Antwon Bailey and Justin Pugh were named first-team All-BIG EAST.

2012
In its last year in the BIG EAST, Syracuse won a share of the conference championship and finished 8-5 overall. The Orange captured their second Pinstripe Bowl title in three years, beating West Virginia, 38-14. Quarterback Ryan Nassib surpassed his previous team-record totals, completing 294-of-471 passes for 3,757 yards and 26 touchdowns. Receiver Alec Lemon, offensive tackle Justin Pugh and safety Shamarko Thomas earned first-team All-BIG EAST honors, while Nassib was a Pro Football Weekly All-American. Pugh, Nassib and Thomas were all selected in the 2013 NFL Draft.

2013
Scott Shafer replaced Doug Marrone as head coach after Marrone was hired by the Buffalo Bills. Syracuse was 7-6 in its first year as a member of the Atlantic Coast Conference and defeated Minnesota in the Texas Bowl. Six members of the Orange earned All-ACC honors, including Jay Bromley and Marquis Spruill, who were both selected in the 2014 NFL Draft. Bromley was a third-round pick by the New York Giants. Spruill went in the fifth round to the Atlanta Falcons.

2014
Syracuse opened the year with victories against Villanova and Central Michigan, but finished the season 3-9 in Scott Shafer's second year as head coach. The Orange were stout defensively, ranking 26th nationally in total defense. Linebacker Cameron Lynch (third team), offensive tackle Sean Hickey (third team) and punter Riley Dixon (honorable mention) received All-ACC plaudits.

2015
The Orange started the year 3-0 for the first time since 1991, but lost their next eight games. A 20-17 victory against Boston College in Scott Shafer's last game as head coach ended the slide, resulting in a 4-8 record. Punter Riley Dixon became the first player in school history to earn All-ACC First Team honors. Dixon was drafted in the seventh round of the 2016 NFL Draft by the Denver Broncos.

2016
Syracuse set or tied more than 40 school records on offense in Dino Babers' first season as head coach. A 31-17 home victory over No. 17 Virginia Tech highlighted a 4-8 season and gave Central New York a glimpse of what Babers' high-octane, spread offense was capable of. Receiver Amba Etta-Tawo had a monster season, catching 94 passes for 1,482 yards and 14 touchdowns. Return man Brisly Estime led the NCAA in punt return average (17.7) and closed his career as the ACC's all-time leader in that category with a four-year mark of 18.0 yards per return. Etta-Tawo earned All-ACC First Team plaudits from both the media and coaches. He also garnered four All-America nods, including second-team honors from Sporting News.

2017
For the second straight season, Syracuse secured a marquee home win, shocking No. 2 Clemson, 27-24. However, injuries at key positions and five losses by nine points or less contributed to another 4-8 finish. Linebacker Zaire Franklin served as a team captain for the third year in row, a first for a Syracuse player in the modern era. Receiver Steve Ishmael caught a school-record 105 passes for 1,347 yards to close his career as the program's all-time leader in receiving yardage (2,891). Position-mate Ervin Philips ended his Orange career with a team-record 223 catches. The 2017 Walter Camp Connecticut Player of the Year, Philips snagged 89 balls, teaming up with Ishmael for an ACC-record 194 combined receptions. Ishmael was a unanimous All-ACC First Team selection and was picked to nine All-America teams. Franklin was selected in the seventh round of the 2018 NFL Draft by the Indianapolis Colts.

2018
Syracuse reclaimed its place on college football's national stage, posting a 10-3 record and finishing No. 15 in the country in both polls. The Orange were unbeaten (6-0) at home and went 6-2 versus conference opponents to finish second in the ACC Atlantic Division behind eventual national champion Clemson. Syracuse earned its first bowl berth since 2013, capping the year with a 34-18 Camping World Bowl triumph against West Virginia. The Orange set school records for points scored (528), rushing touchdowns (38) and sacks (43). Eleven players earned All-ACC honors, including first-team selections Andre Cisco (S), Sterling Hofrichter (P) and Andre Szmyt (PK). Cisco and Szmyt were named All-Americans, with Szmyt earning unanimous first-team distinction. He also won the Lou Groza Award as the nation's best kicker. Quarterback Eric Dungey closed his spectacular career with 25 school records to his name. In addition, the Orange had a player selected in the NFL Draft for the second year in a row. Defensive tackle Chris Slayton was picked in the seventh round by the New York Giants.

2019
A season-opening shutout of Liberty and wins in two of their last three games highlighted a 5-7 season for the Orange. Sterling Hofrichter capped his stellar career by earning All-America honors and setting the program record for career punting yardage (11,651). Wide receiver Trishton Jackson became the first Syracuse junior to record a 1,000-yard receiving season. Defensively, safety Andre Cisco followed up his sensational rookie season by leading the ACC again in interceptions with five, while linebacker Lakiem Williams logged an ACC-best 110 regular-season tackles. Hofrichter (first team), Jackson (second team), Cisco (second team), Williams (third team), placekicker Andre Szmyt (third team) and defensive end Alton Robinson (honorable mention) were named all-conference. Additionally, Robinson and Hofrichter were selected in the NFL Draft. Robinson was picked in the fifth round (148th overall) by the Seattle Seahawks and Hofrichter was taken in the seventh round (228th overall) by the Atlanta Falcons.

2020
The 2020 season was one of the most unique in college football and sports history due to the challenges created by the COVID-19 Pandemic. In a season where Syracuse couldn't have any fans at home games, and only played in front of a crowd at all on four occasions, the Orange managed to play all-11 games on its schedule without a single player having to miss a game due to a positive COVID test. Syracuse was one of the only schools in the country to make that claim. Ultimately, the team finished 1-10, but saw Ifeatu Melifonwu and Andre Cisco drafted in the third round of the 2021 NFL Draft.

2021
The most prolific individual rushing season and a top-20 defense nationally had the Orange much improved from 2020. Ultimately the team finished 5-7, with three losses coming on the game's final play being the difference from bowl eligibility. Sean Tucker was an All-American after breaking Joe Morris' single-season rushing record (1,496). He was joined on the First Team All-ACC squad by Mikel Jones and Cody Roscoe.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

Founded in 1951 by the National Football Foundation, the College Football Hall of Fame immortalizes the greatest of the amateur gridiron.

With 18 inductees, Syracuse is one of the most well-represented schools in the Hall. The Orange rank second behind Pittsburgh (25) for the most honorees among ACC programs.

Originally slated to be built on the Rutgers University campus – home of the first college football game in 1869 – the Hall ultimately found its first home in Kings Mill, Ohio in 1978. The Ohio location closed in 1992 and the Hall relocated to South Bend, Indiana where it resided from 1995 to 2012. In 2014, the College Football Hall of Fame opened in Atlanta where it is home to approximately 1,250 enshrinees.

Syracuse coaches Frank O'Neill and Howard Jones were members of the first induction class in 1951. Three years later, in 1954, three-time All-American Joe Alexander became the first Orange player inducted. Receiver Art Monk is the program's most recent honoree. Monk was enshrined in 2012.

Art Monk was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2012 in recognition of a standout career that included leading the Orange to a victory in the 1979 Independence Bowl.

Don McPherson celebrated his College Football Hall of Fame induction with friends and former teammates on Nov. 1, 2008 versus Louisville.

ALL-CENTURY TEAM

Syracuse University's All-Century Football Team featured a Heisman Trophy winner and nine College Football Hall of Famers. The team was comprised of players from eight different decades, including several Orange standouts who showcased their talents in the NFL. Donovan McNabb, Marvin Harrison and Daryl Johnston were just a few of many All-Century honorees who went on to professional football stardom.

The team was announced on Oct. 27, 1999 following a selection process that included more than 6,000 fan votes. The criteria for selecting the team included all players who significantly impacted Syracuse football with special consideration for those who were members of the College Football Hall of Fame, All-Americans or who played in the NFL. Nominees were selected by three prominent figures associated with the Orange football program: Sports Information Director Emeritus Larry Kimball, former Syracuse Newspapers Sports Editor Arnie Burdick and former player, coach and administrator Joe Szombathy.

"Being selected to this elite team typifies the tremendous success that Syracuse football achieved throughout the 20th century. Some of these athletes are among the greatest to ever play college football. It was an honor for us to recognize their talents and contributions at our final home game of the century," former Syracuse Director of Athletics Jake Crouthamel said.

Members of the All-Century Team were honored at halftime against Temple on Nov. 6, 1999.

RETIRED NUMBERS & JERSEYS

Since Syracuse University began fielding an intercollegiate football team in 1889, only one number (44) and six jerseys have been retired. The No. 44 was worn by 25 Orange standouts, including Jim Brown, Ernie Davis and Floyd Little. The jerseys belonged to six of the greatest players in Syracuse football history not to wear 44 – Larry Csonka, John Mackey, Donovan McNabb, Don McPherson, Joe Morris and Tim Green.

THE LEGEND OF 44

Like tailbacks at USC, quarterbacks at Brigham Young and linebackers at Penn State, the running back position at Syracuse has a rich tradition of greatness. Much of that excellence has revolved around one jersey number – 44.

On Nov. 12, 2005 the number was retired. A No. 44 jersey is displayed in the Dome rafters, honoring the legends who wore it.

Beginning with Gifford Zimmerman in 1921, 25 players sported the number during their careers. Rob Konrad was the last in 1998. Three of the most famous to don the historic digits – Jim Brown, Ernie Davis and Floyd Little – are enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame and rank among the finest runners to ever play the game.

Over time, the number's significance has extended beyond athletics and has come to represent something special for Syracuse University students, alumni, faculty and staff. It is an iconic and irreplaceable part of the school's fabric. Just how much does the No. 44 mean to the University and local community? For starters, the University zip code was changed from 13210 to 13244 several years ago. In 1988, when the University switched phone systems, the exchange was changed from 423 to 443. Thirty years later, in 2018, the tradition continued with a new way to pay tribute to the number. That fall, Orange Central featured the University's first 44th milestone reunion, bringing the Class of 1974 back together during Syracuse's annual homecoming and reunion weekend.

A committee has been established to oversee No. 44. Under very special circumstances, the committee can permit a current student-athlete to wear it.

RETIRED NUMBERS & JERSEYS

39 • LARRY CSONKA, FB

Years: 1965-67 • Jersey Retired: 2007

Csonka led the Orange in rushing twice. He was named the 1967 ECAC Player of the Year and ranks fifth on Syracuse's all-time rushing list (2,934 yards). Csonka went on to play for the NFL's Miami Dolphins and New York Giants. He was a member of the 1972 Dolphins team that went undefeated. Csonka was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1987. Two years later, in 1989, he was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame.

88 • JOHN MACKEY, TE

Years: 1960-62 • Jersey Retired: 2007

Mackey is known as perhaps the greatest tight end of all-time. He led the Orange in receiving yardage in 1961 and 1962. Mackey went on to become an All-Pro for the Baltimore Colts. A five-time Pro Bowler, he was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1992. Mackey died in 2011 at the age of 69. Each year since 2000, the John Mackey Award has been presented to the nation's top collegiate tight end.

5 • DONOVAN McNABB, QB

Years: 1995-98 • Jersey Retired: 2013

McNabb led the Orange to three straight BIG EAST titles from 1996-98. He was fifth in the Heisman Trophy balloting as a senior and holds the school records for most career touchdown passes (77) and touchdowns responsible for (96). A four-time All-BIG EAST First Team selection, McNabb was taken second overall by the Philadelphia Eagles in the 1999 NFL Draft. He was a six-time Pro Bowler in his 11 years with the franchise and played a total of 13 NFL seasons.

9 • DON McPHERSON, QB

Years: 1983-87 • Jersey Retired: 2013

McPherson authored one of the best seasons in school history in 1987. The Heisman Trophy runner-up, McPherson won the Maxwell (Most Outstanding Player) and Davey O'Brien (Most Outstanding Quarterback) awards after guiding the Orange to an 11-0-1 record. His 164.3 passer rating led the NCAA and stands as the Syracuse single-season record. McPherson played seven professional seasons in the NFL and CFL. He was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2008.

47 • JOE MORRIS, RB

Years: 1978-81 • Jersey Retired: 2018

Morris holds or shares 15 school records, including the single-game (252 yards), single-season (1,372 yards in 1979) and career (4,299 yards) rushing records. He posted three 1,000-yard rushing seasons and earned All-America honors in 1979 and 1981. Morris was drafted by the New York Giants in 1982 and played eight seasons in the NFL. He was a two-time Pro Bowl selection and helped the 1986 Giants win the franchise's first Super Bowl.

72 • TIM GREEN, DT

Years: 1982-85 • Jersey Retired: 2019

Green was the first defensive player to have his jersey retired by the program. A member of Syracuse's All-Century team, Green tallied a school-record 45.5 sacks and 341 career tackles, the most by a down lineman in team history, from 1982-85. He was a two-time CoSIDA Academic All-American and a Rhodes Scholarship finalist before going on to a successful NFL career with the Atlanta Falcons. An accomplished broadcaster, author and lawyer, Green was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2001.

CONSENSUS ALL-AMERICANS

MARQUIS (BILL) HORR
Tackle • 1908

The first All-American in the history of Syracuse football, Horr anchored a young offensive line on a team that opened newly-built Archbold Stadium with a win against Hobart in 1907. The next year, Horr led the Orange to a 6-3-1 record and the first victory in school history against a team from the Western Conference (now Big Ten) when Syracuse topped Michigan 28-4 in the season finale. At the 1908 Summer Olympics in London, Horr won the silver medal in the Greek-style discus throw and the bronze in the free-style discus throw. Horr served as the head football coach at Northwestern in 1909 and the head coach at Purdue from 1910 to 1912, compiling a career record of 9-14-2.

HAROLD WHITE
Guard • 1915

White and fellow All-American Christopher Schlacter were the guards on a line that helped Syracuse's offense overpower its opponents by the combined score of 331-16 in 1915. The Orange scored more than 30 points on five occasions and topped the 70-point mark in victories against Mount Union (73-0) and Rochester (82-0). The team finished with an impressive 9-1-2 record and was invited to play Washington in the Rose Bowl, but declined because an earlier West Coast trip (the first by an Eastern school) to Oregon State had used up the travel budget. Standing 6 feet 6 inches tall and weighing more than 270 pounds, White was one of the largest players of his era and captained the Orange in 1916.

ALFRED COBB
Tackle • 1917

A 1917 team captain, Cobb was the anchor for an offensive line that propelled the Orange to an 8-1-1 record, including six straight wins to end the season. Cobb played in the early days of the NFL, when it was still known as the American Professional Football Association (APFA). He suited up for the Akron Pros and the Cleveland Bulldogs. In 1920 with Akron, Cobb was a member of the very first NFL championship team. Over three APFA/NFL seasons, Cobb played in 21 games as a lineman, starting 16 of them.

J.A. (JOE) ALEXANDER
Guard/Center • 1918, 1919

Alexander and Ernie Davis are the only two players in Orange history to earn multiple consensus All-America honors. Alexander starred for Coach Frank O'Neill's teams from 1918-20. He also captained the lacrosse team for one season. Nicknamed "Doc," Alexander graduated from medical school and began practicing in New York City. He specialized in lung treatment and helped found one of the first tuberculosis centers in New York. For seven seasons (1921-27), he played in the National Football League on weekends while practicing medicine. A center in the NFL's early days for the Rochester Jeffersons (1921-22), Milwaukee Badgers (1922) and New York Giants (1925-27), Alexander was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1954.

LOUIS USHER
Tackle • 1918

Usher and fellow offensive lineman Joe Alexander anchored the line for the 5-1 Orange in 1918. Usher went on to play professional football for five years for the Rochester Jeffersons, Chicago Stanleys, Chicago Bears, Hammond Pros and Kenosha Maroons. He was tragically killed on Jan. 1, 1927 in an automobile accident near Calumet City, Illinois.

EVANDER (PETE) MacRAE
End • 1923

MacRae led the Orange to an 8-1 overall record in 1923, including seven straight shutouts. The three-year football letterwinner was also the starting center for the Syracuse basketball team. After playing professional basketball for the Syracuse All-Stars, he returned to the University as an assistant basketball coach.

VIC HANSON
End • 1926

A three-sport star in football, basketball and baseball, Hanson was a consensus All-American on the gridiron in 1926 after leading the Orange to a 7-2-1 record. That winter, Hanson powered the Orange basketball team to a 19-1 mark. Following his college career, Hanson played briefly with the Cleveland Rosenblums in the American Basketball League and then formed the Syracuse All-Americans basketball team. The New York Yankees also signed Hanson upon his graduation from Syracuse in 1927 and he played one year in their farm system. Hanson served as head football coach of the Orange from 1930 to 1936, compiling a record of 33-21-5. He is the only player enshrined in both the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame and College Football Hall of Fame.

JIM BROWN
Halfback • 1956 *

Brown set the Orange record for average yards per carry (6.2) in 1956 and broke the single-season rushing record with 986 yards. Against Colgate that season, he established school marks for rushing touchdowns (6) and points scored in a game (43). After leaving Syracuse, he played for the NFL's Cleveland Browns from 1957 to 1965 and scored 106 touchdowns. He was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1971 and College Football Hall of Fame in 1995. In addition to football, Brown excelled at basketball, lacrosse and track. He is a member of the National Lacrosse Hall of Fame and was an All-American midfielder on the Orange's undefeated 1957 team. Brown is considered by many to be the greatest athlete of all-time. During the 2020 CFP National Championship Game, he was crowned the No. 1 player of college football's first 150 years by ESPN.

ROGER DAVIS
Guard • 1959 *

Nicknamed "Hound Dog" because of his love for training hunting dogs, Davis helped fellow All-American Ernie Davis rush for 883 yards in 1959. He was a member of a Syracuse unit that led the country in total offense (451.5 ypg) on its way to winning the national championship. Davis played pro football for the Chicago Bears, Los Angeles Rams and New York Giants. He was a starter at right guard for the Bears in 1963 when they won the NFL championship.

ERNIE DAVIS
Halfback • 1960, 1961 *

Nicknamed the "Elmira Express" by sportswriter Al Mallette, Davis powered Syracuse to a 26-5 record from 1959-61. As a sophomore in 1959, Davis scored two touchdowns against Texas in the Cotton Bowl to help the Orange complete a perfect season and capture the program's only national championship. Two years later, Davis became the first African-American and only Syracuse player to win the Heisman Trophy. He was selected first overall by the Washington Redskins in the 1962 NFL Draft and traded to Cleveland. Davis was diagnosed with leukemia the following summer and died in 1963 at the age of 23 without ever playing a professional game. The Browns retired his No. 45 jersey shortly after his death, and Davis was posthumously inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1979. In 2008, he was the subject of the Universal Pictures film "The Express," starring Dennis Quaid, Rob Brown and Charles S. Dutton. The film was based on the non-fiction book "Ernie Davis: The Elmira Express" by Robert C. Gallagher.

CONSENSUS ALL-AMERICANS

LARRY CSONKA

Fullback • 1967 *

Csonka led the Orange in rushing twice and was named the 1967 ECAC Player of the Year as a senior. He teamed with halfback Floyd Little to form the most potent rushing duo in school history. Csonka holds the Orange record for most carries in a game (43 vs. Maryland in 1967) and ranks fifth on Syracuse's career rushing list (2,934 yards). He recorded two 200-yard rushing games for the Orange, including 204 yards against Cal in 1967. Csonka went on to play for the NFL's Miami Dolphins and New York Giants. He was a member of the 1972 Dolphins team that went undefeated. Csonka was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1987. Two years later, in 1989, he was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame. In 2007, Syracuse retired Csonka's No. 39 jersey.

TIM GREEN

Defensive Tackle • 1985 *

Green was named the ECAC co-Player of the Year in 1985 and ranks first on Syracuse's career sacks list with 45.5. He remains the program's top tackler among down linemen with 341 career stops. Green played for the NFL's Atlanta Falcons and was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2001. After his playing career ended, Green became a commentator for the NFL on FOX. A best-selling author and lawyer, Green won the NCAA Silver Anniversary Award, given annually to six former student-athletes for distinguished career accomplishments on the 25th anniversary of their college graduation, in December 2011. In 2019, Green became the first defensive player in program history to have his jersey retired.

TED GREGORY

Nose Guard • 1987

Gregory was a force during Syracuse's 11-0-1 season in 1987. He captained a defense that allowed more than 21 points just once in 12 games. He was a finalist for the Lombardi Award, which at the time recognized the most outstanding lineman or linebacker in major college football. Gregory completed his four-year career with 242 tackles, third all-time among Orange defensive linemen, and 17 sacks. He went on to play in the NFL for the New Orleans Saints.

DON McPHERSON

Quarterback • 1987 *

The Heisman Trophy runner-up in 1987, McPherson won the Maxwell (Most Outstanding Player), Davey O'Brien (Most Outstanding Quarterback) and Johnny Unitas Golden Arm (Most Outstanding Senior Quarterback) awards. His 164.3 passer rating that season led the NCAA and stands as an Orange record. He also set the school single-season marks for most yards per pass attempt (10.2) and most yards per completion (18.1). Upon graduating from Syracuse, McPherson spent seven seasons in the NFL and CFL. After retiring from football in 1994, he joined the staff of Northeastern University's Center for the Study of Sport in Society before becoming the first executive director of the Sports Leadership Institute at Adelphi University. McPherson was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2008. Syracuse retired McPherson's No. 9 jersey in 2013.

JOHN FLANNERY

Center • 1990

With Flannery as the anchor of the offensive line from 1987-90, Syracuse posted a four-year record of 36-10-3, including a 3-0-1 record in bowl games. A native of Pottsville, Pennsylvania, Flannery started at left guard for Syracuse in 1987 before shifting to center. He was a three-time All-American, earning first-team honors in both 1989 and 1990. He was drafted in the second round by the Houston Oilers and made the NFL All-Rookie Team in 1991. He later made professional stops with the Dallas Cowboys and St. Louis Rams, winning a Super Bowl title as a member of the Rams in 1999. That same year, Flannery was named to Syracuse's All-Century Team.

CHRIS GEDNEY

Tight End • 1992 *

A native of nearby Liverpool, New York, Gedney set the standard for Orange tight ends. He held the school records for most receptions by a tight end in a season (34) and career (91) until 2011. His 34 catches and five touchdowns during the 1992 season helped propel Syracuse to a 10-2 record and a victory over Colorado in the Fiesta Bowl. Gedney played seven seasons in the NFL for the Chicago Bears and Arizona Cardinals. In 2008, he returned to his alma mater as the Orange Club's assistant athletics director for major gifts. He was appointed senior associate athletics director for the Orange Club in 2011, a position he held until his passing in 2018. A member of Syracuse's All-Century Team, Gedney was named a 2015 ACC Football Legend. He also served as the color analyst for Syracuse IMG Sports Network football broadcasts from 2007-2017.

DWIGHT FREENEY

Defensive End • 2001 *

Freeney terrorized opposing quarterbacks from 1998-2001. He holds the Orange records for most sacks in a game (4.5 vs. Virginia Tech in 2000) and season (17.5 in 2001). He finished his career with 34 quarterback takedowns, second only to Tim Green on the Syracuse all-time list. Freeney was team MVP his junior year. As a senior in 2001, he was an All-BIG EAST First Team selection and shared BIG EAST Defensive Player of the Year honors. He was also a finalist for the 2001 Lombardi, Bednarik and Nagurski awards. The Indianapolis Colts made Freeney the 11th overall pick in the 2002 NFL Draft. In 2004, Freeney led the NFL with 16 sacks. Two years later, he won a world championship when Indianapolis defeated the Chicago Bears in Super Bowl XLI. Freeney also played for the San Diego Chargers, Arizona Cardinals, Atlanta Falcons, Seattle Seahawks and Detroit Lions during his pro career. He retired in 2018 with 125.5 career sacks.

ANDRE SZMYT

Placekicker • 2018 *

Originally a walk-on, Szmyt authored the best season on record for an Orange specialist as a freshman in 2018. Szmyt became the first player in team history to win the Lou Groza Award as the nation's top kicker, connecting on 30-of-34 (.882) field goals and making all 61 of his extra-point attempts. He led the NCAA in almost every kicking category, including most field goals. Additionally, Szmyt became the second placekicker in FBS history to lead the country in scoring average with 11.6 points per game. Szmyt was a 2018 All-ACC First Team selection and received All-America honors from 14 different selectors, including 12 first-team citations.

* - Unanimous selection

ALL-AMERICANS

The following roster of Syracuse All-Americans consists of only those players who were named to All-America teams that were selected for the national audience and that received nationwide circulation. Not included are the numerous Syracuse players who were selected by newspapers or agencies that were not primarily national and with viewpoints, therefore, they were not normally nationwide in scope.

Defensive tackle Joe Ehrmann (76) was an All-American in 1969, 1970 and 1972. He went on to play 10 seasons in the NFL, including eight with the Baltimore Colts.

JIM BROWN: ALL-TIME ALL-AMERICAN

In conjunction with the 150th anniversary of college football in 2019, ESPN selected an All-Time All-America Team comprised of the greatest players in intercollegiate football history. Among those named to the 25-man team was Syracuse great and 1956 unanimous All-American Jim Brown.

The All-Time All-America Team was derived from the votes of a blue-ribbon panel made up of current and former writers, broadcasters, administrators, sports information directors and ESPN personalities. The panel included Syracuse Executive Senior Associate AD for Communications Sue Edson.

NATIONAL HONORS & AWARDS

THE HEISMAN TROPHY

Honoring the outstanding college football player in the United States. Presented by the Downtown Athletic Club of New York.

ERNIE DAVIS • 1961

In 1961, halfback Ernie Davis won the Heisman Trophy, given to the outstanding intercollegiate football player in the United States. Davis edged out Bill Ferguson of Ohio State, in what was at the time the closest vote in Heisman history (824 points to 771), to become the first African-American and only Syracuse player to win the coveted award. Davis rushed for 823 yards and 12 touchdowns to lead the Orange to an 8-3 record and the No. 14 ranking in the final Associated Press college football poll. Davis was selected first overall by the Washington Redskins in 1962 and traded to the Cleveland Browns. While preparing for the AFCA All-American Game in Buffalo, Davis was diagnosed with leukemia. He died in 1963, never getting the chance to realize his dream of teaming with former Syracuse great Jim Brown in the Cleveland Browns backfield. Davis' Heisman Trophy is kept on display in the Iocolano-Petty Football Complex for all to enjoy.

SOLADAY AWARD

It is fitting that the Soladay Award is the most prestigious award given to a student-athlete by the Department of Athletics. After all, Doris R. Soladay epitomized all of the positives in intercollegiate athletics. The Soladay Award is given annually to the top male and female student-athletes who best exemplify the essence of Doris.

From her appointment as the first, and only, Director of Women's Athletics at Syracuse University in 1975 until the day she retired as Associate Director of Athletics on May 31, 1995, Doris dedicated herself to student-athletes wearing the Orange. The Syracuse Department of Athletics and the world of intercollegiate sports lost a dear friend when Doris passed away in May, 2001.

Doris established scholarships for women, while increasing the budgets to run the programs. She worked with the late Chancellor Melvin Eggers and others who supported women's athletics to begin Orange Plus. Throughout her career, Doris made it a point to attend every home athletic contest of every Syracuse team whenever possible. She often cheered on one team in the morning, another in the afternoon and a third in the evening.

Her impact on athletics reaches far beyond "The Hill," however. Prior to the NCAA taking women's athletics into its fold, Doris held offices on numerous committees in the AIAW (Association for Intercollegiate Athletics for Women) on the state, regional and national levels. After the merger Doris directed her energy into the NCAA Council, serving from 1989 through 1995.

Doris was also influential regionally where she was an integral part of the expansion of The BIG EAST Conference to include women's athletics, as well as chairing various committees in the league. The ECAC also benefitted from her knowledge and savvy, where she was a member of the ECAC Women's Steering Committee from 1983-87. For her many outstanding contributions, the ECAC honored Doris with the 1995 Katherine Ley Award, presented annually to a women's athletics administrator who serves as a role model for her colleagues, as well as a strong proponent of women's issues.

It is no secret that since her retirement her presence in the corridors of Manley Field House has been missed, but it is clear that her legacy will remain a part of the Orange forever.

THE ZUNIC AWARD

Presented by the Syracuse Football Club, the Zunic Award was created in 2001 to honor Mike and Judy Zunic, who died tragically on July 18, 1989 when a United Airlines plane crashed in Sioux City, Iowa. The pilot, anticipating landing difficulties, requested if some strong passengers would volunteer to give up their seats and sit at the exit doors to assist passengers in the event of an emergency. Mike and Judy gave up their seats in first class to sit at one of the exit doors. They both died in the crash and those in the Zunics' original seats survived.

Mike was a four-year starter at linebacker and earned a B.A. ('81) and master's ('82) degree from Syracuse University in speech communication.

YEAR-BY-YEAR RESULTS

Game-by-game results for every Syracuse football season since 1889. Home games were played on campus at The Oval from 1895-1906 and at Archbold Stadium from 1907-1978. Home games in 1979 were played at various sites due to the construction of the Carrier Dome - now JMA Wireless Dome as of June, 2022 -, which has served as the team's home venue since 1980.

Syracuse was a member of the BIG EAST Conference from 1991-2012. There were no BIG EAST standings for 1991 and 1992. The highest ranked team in the USA Today Coaches Poll those seasons was declared conference champion. In 2013, Syracuse joined the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Associated Press rankings at the time the game was played are listed under the headings "SU" and "Opp." The AP poll began in 1936. From 1961-67, the AP ranked only the nation's top 10 teams. Available game attendance figures are also listed.

NCAA STATISTICAL CHAMPIONS

The NCAA began producing its annual statistical rankings in 1937. From 1937 through 1969, all individual rankings were by season totals. Beginning in 1970, most season individual rankings were by per game averages. Punting has always been by average.

Beginning in 1970, passers were ranked on completions per game. Starting in 1979, they were ranked on efficiency rating points. The all-purpose running rankings have been compiled since 1970. Field goal rankings began when the goal posts were widened in 1959.

Before 2002, bowl games were not included in NCAA final football statistics or records. Beginning with the 2002 season, all postseason games were included.

The NCAA retroactively determined the leaders in kickoff return and punt return average from 1937 to 1969 and includes them in the official record book.

This listing includes national leaders in additional statistical categories if known.

The Associated Press college football poll was introduced in 1936. The poll ranked the top 20 teams in the nation until 1961 when it was revamped to include just the top 10 teams. The top-20 format returned in 1968 and was expanded to include the top 25 in 1989.

The coaches poll was a service of the United Press (UP) and United Press International (UPI) from 1950 to 1990. In 1991, the coaches poll was taken over and released by USA Today.

Bowl Championship Series (BCS) rankings were released from 1998-2013. The College Football Playoff (CFP) rankings debuted in 2014.

PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

JIM BROWN

Jim Brown is the player all running backs are measured against. He is the only person enshrined in the College Football, Pro Football and National Lacrosse Halls of Fame. He was a unanimous collegiate All-American in both sports. The 6-2, 232-pound Brown was the top draft choice of the Cleveland Browns in 1957. He is considered by many to be the finest runner to ever play the game. He led the NFL in rushing in eight of his nine professional seasons. When Brown retired in July of 1966, he held the NFL records for single-season (1,863 in 1963) and career (12,312) rushing yardage, rushing touchdowns (106), total touchdowns (126) and career all-purpose yardage (15,549). He was voted to the Pro Bowl every season he played and was named the greatest professional football player of all-time by Sporting News in 2002.

JIM RINGO

One of the greatest linemen in pro football history, Jim Ringo was the center for Vince Lombardi's great Green Bay Packers teams, and later in his career, the Philadelphia Eagles. Ringo earned All-NFL honors six times. He played in 10 Pro Bowls and three NFL championship games. Ringo was a member of Ben Schwartzwalder's 7-2 1952 squad that earned a trip to the Orange Bowl, Syracuse's first-ever bowl appearance.

LARRY CSONKA

Still considered the prototype for NFL fullbacks, Larry Csonka led the Miami Dolphins to an undefeated season and the Super Bowl title in 1972. He was the MVP of Super Bowl VIII after carrying 33 times for 145 yards and two touchdowns, as Miami defeated Minnesota, 24-7. A five-time Pro Bowl selection, Csonka put together three straight 1,000-yard campaigns from 1971-73, leading the Dolphins to the Super Bowl each season.

AL DAVIS

A 1950 Syracuse University graduate, Al Davis was the owner of the Oakland Raiders from 1972 to 2011. He served as commissioner of the AFL in 1966 and was the driving force behind the AFL-NFL merger. From 1967-85, Davis' Raiders won an AFL championship, three Super Bowl titles and 13 division championships.

Syracuse's legacy in the Pro Football Hall of Fame ranks among the finest of any college football program. The Orange boast eight inductees, tied for the seventh-most of any school. Jim Brown (1971) was the Orange's first representative enshrined in Canton. Marvin Harrison (2016) is Syracuse's most recent honoree. Three players (Art Monk, Floyd Little and Harrison) earned induction during the nine-year period from 2008 to 2016.

JOHN MACKEY

John Mackey is known as perhaps the greatest tight end of all-time. He played 10 seasons in the NFL from 1963-72, including nine with the Baltimore Colts. A five-time Pro Bowler, Mackey caught 331 career passes for 5,236 yards and scored 38 touchdowns. He was a member of the NFL's 1960s All-Decade Team and was named to the NFL 100 All-Time Team in 2019. Mackey served as president of the NFL Players Association toward the end of his career and helped fight to establish free agency.

ART MONK

Considered one of football's most reliable receivers, Art Monk played for the Washington Redskins, New York Jets and Philadelphia Eagles during his 16-year NFL career that spanned from 1980 to 1995. Monk was selected by the Redskins in the 1980 NFL Draft and helped the franchise win three Super Bowl titles. He was voted to the Pro Bowl after the 1984, 1985 and 1986 seasons. Monk was the first receiver in league history to amass 900 career receptions. He made at least one reception in 183 straight games and finished his career with 940 catches.

FLOYD LITTLE

A multi-dimensional player, Floyd Little combined his rushing talents with great hands and elusiveness in the return game to become a superstar for the Denver Broncos. A five-time Pro Bowler, Little recorded more than 12,000 all-purpose yards during his career, which lasted from 1967 to 1975. He led the AFC in rushing in 1970. The next year, Little posted the first 1,000-yard season in Denver history, gaining a league-best 1,133 yards. At the time of his retirement, Little ranked seventh on the NFL's career rushing list (6,323 yards). He was a charter member of the Broncos Ring of Fame in 1984.

MARVIN HARRISON

An All-American for the Orange in 1995, Marvin Harrison played 13 seasons for the Indianapolis Colts and earned eight Pro Bowl invitations. As Peyton Manning's favorite target, Harrison posted eight 1,000-yard receiving seasons, including 1,366 yards in 2006 to help the Colts win their first Super Bowl in 36 years. In 2002, Harrison set the NFL single-season record (since broken) with 143 catches. At the time of his retirement, Harrison ranked second in league history with 1,102 receptions for 14,580 yards and 128 touchdowns.

 - Territorial Draft*

NOTE

The USFL held a yearly "territorial" draft where teams could select players from protected schools in their geographic area without them being subjected to the league's annual collegiate draft.

In 1993, Glen Young was selected in the third round of the Canadian Football League Draft by the Hamilton Tiger-Cats.
